

Immorality vs. Immortality

Mired in immorality,
you may be physically alive,
but spiritually dead;
immersed in immortality,
you may physically die,
but are always spiritually alive.

Immorality is the path of sin and vice;
immortality is the way of
virtue and goodness.

Ensnared by evil
temptations,
we fall into
immorality;
inspired by God's
invitation,
we aspire to
immortality.

Immorality expresses
what is most base;
immortality blossoms from
what is most noble.

Immorality produces
rogues;
immortality attracts
saints.

Immorality buries us
in sin;
immortality buries sin
in us.

Immorality ruins
character;
immortality builds
personality.

Immorality ruptures
our covenant with God;
immortality fortifies
our bond with the Lord.

Life, therefore,
led by immorality
is merely
the passing of years,
but led on by immortality,
it is the passing into eternity.

© Msgr. Walter Niebrzydowski
November 14, 2004
Fr-Walter@nyc.rr.com
www.fatherwaltersaprih.org