

Shuff, William

William "Bill" Shuff, 70, of Showlow, Ariz. died May 23, 2002 at his home after a brief illness. He was born in Ohio on Dec. 15, 1931 to the late Clifford and Florence (Vititoe) Shuff. He grew up in Bad Axe and Elkton. William was united in marriage to Beverly Brown Jan. 24, 1955. He is survived by his wife, Beverly, of Showlow, Ariz.; two daughters, Patty at home, and Kathy of New York; six sons, Jerry of Showlow, Ariz., Gary of Bad Axe, Don of Battle Creek, Ron of Ohio, Bill of Idaho, and Jimmy of White Mountains Lake, Ariz.; several grandchildren; five sisters, Bette McGuire of Unionville, Shirley Lakies and her husband, Bob, of Bad Axe, Mary Cram and her husband, Bob, of Jackson, Phyllis Nichols and her husband, Delton, of Rives Junction, Mich., and Linda Ruhling and her husband, Dan, of East Jordan, Mich.; and three brothers, Fred of Unionville, David and his wife, Gloria, of Flint, and Larry and his wife, Georgeen, of Bad Axe. Cremation took place May 24, 2002.