

RETIRED Elkton physician, Dr. Robert Willits, dies

1980

Retired Elkton physician, Dr. Robert A. Willits, 48, died Monday at Caro Community Hospital following a short illness.

Dr. Willits graduated from Alma College in 1953 and Case Western Reserve Medical School in 1957. He interned at Midland Community Hospital.

He established a private practice in Elkton in 1958.

Dr. Willits later practiced in Pigeon, beginning in 1967.

In 1968, Dr. Willits retired and began traveling.

He was a member of the Huron County Medical Society and the Michigan State Medical Society.

He was born Oct. 2, 1932, in Fostoria, son of the late Arthur and Tillie Willits.

He and Shirley Young were married June 20, 1953, in Caro.

Dr. Willits was a member of the Elkton United Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife; two nieces; two aunts and one uncle.

Services will be conducted 11 a.m. Friday from the Collon Funeral Home, Caro, with Rev. Clive Dickins officiating.

Friends may call at the funeral home in Caro after 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Burial will be in the Rich Cemetery.