Gospel: Luke 13: 22-30

“Making Our way to Jerusalem”

The Gospel of Luke reminds us once again that we are on the "way to Jerusalem" with Jesus. It reminds us that this spiritual journey begins by entering the "narrow gate." This means that the guiding force in our lives ought to be the loving concern that took Jesus himself to the end of his career as he gave his life for us in Jerusalem. Luke is thinking about the true purpose of this human life that God has given us.

The Gospel message echoes down the centuries to console those who have come to faith in Jesus. There are always moments when the dream fades and hopes are dimmed. Evil, suffering and death continue to burst the dreams of believers, and many are tempted to walk away from the Lord and from his community of faith. But the Risen Savior continues to walk with us, to lead us back to the Scriptures for the answers, and to reveal Himself again to us in the breaking of the Bread of the Eucharist.

The Good News that we celebrate week by week is, in fact, the unconditional love of God as revealed in Jesus Christ. This spirit of the love of God touches us. We are sent to live by that love, to celebrate it and manifest it in all that we say and do, and, most importantly, to offer it, to witness to it, to share it with others.

We are not waiting for God's promise of redemption to be fulfilled. Rather, we are supposed to be living as people who have already experienced the incredible goodness of God... people who have been baptized into Jesus Christ and who share His life...

We are called to be people who recognize the difficulties of entering through the narrow gate, but who do so nonetheless.
