

School-Age Classroom News

Happy 2021 Everyone!

This year we welcome the new year with the hope of meeting our teachers and classmates face-to-face with in-person classes! However, we know that until that can happen, we will continue to build our friendships and work hard in our school-age MDO classroom! We have become a little family here at MDO and will do all we can to have a great school year!

Important RUSD Dates for our classroom

End of the first semester for RUSD is January 22nd!

No School on Jan. 18th for Martin Luther King Jr. Day

No School on Jan. 22nd for Professional Development Day

No School on Feb. 15th for Winter Break

Scarves—our warm community project!

We have met our goal of making 25+ fleece scarves for this year's community project!! Students worked hard to get them all tied and ready by Christmas! We sincerely thank all of our families who helped us with the cost of the fleece!!!!

Student Missing Assignments?

The end of the 1st semester for RUSD is Jan. 22nd! Please check your child's Google classroom to see if there is any missing work to get done. If you want us to help your son or daughter work on this during his or her free time, we are happy to help do that, but please communicate with an email or note what needs to be done.

January weather is here! Brrrrrrr:

Remember to wear warm winter clothing! Mittens, scarves, and warm jackets! We will still try to go outdoors as often as we can.
