The simplest way to sum up World Series is two words, Dennis Grote. He was a late entry to play the practice round and it may have helped to make the difference. After finishing last on Friday it was a clean sweep on Saturday. His name was on just about every category. He tied the back 9, won Birdies, Net Birdies, Net Eagles, Greenies and Gross Par 3's. He won over $150 and the next highest winning amount was $26. Best of all he won World Series but more on that from the Commissioner.

In Match Play, Andrew (6 Iron) Keller exhibited great patience in defeating Jim Petronchak in a close match 2 & 1 and moves on to the finals. In Partners Bruce Rapp and Dennis Grote (again) defeated the Bobbies +4. Congratulations to all our winners.
