

Reflection

Rachael Martin 3,10,2017

It matters what you see when you look in the mirror. It is time to start thinking kingdom thoughts and cast down evil imaginations.

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has gone, the new has come.” 2 Cor. 5:17

“And to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.” Ephesians 4:24

It also matters more what God sees when He looks at you.

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.” Ephesians 2:10

“Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky.” Philipphians 2:15

What you see is not necessarily what others see and what you believe you are portraying to others could be totally different than either what you give yourself credit for and/or it could be way off from what you need to be sharing with the world.

“But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.” 1 Peter 2:9

It’s also important what you say about yourself. We tend to get caught up a lot in what others see or say about us but what matters the most is what God sees and says about us. When we get hung up on what others may think or the lies of the enemy, we start to doubt the handiwork of God. He sees the finished product. He cares about what we will become and He cares about who will be around to help us get there. The scriptures here today are to encourage you and I pray that we surround ourselves with others who can speak life and truth to our spirit man.

Know who and whose you are and declare that you are chosen by Almighty God and He has the final say over you and for you!!

“Light shines on the godly, and joy on those whose hearts are right.” Psalm 97:11

“No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.”
Romans 8:37

“Now if we are children, then we are heirs- heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ. If indeed we share in His sufferings in order that we may also share with His glory.”
Romans 8:17

“You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you.” John 15:16

Now, speak the bolded declarations out loud to yourself. The power of life and death is in the tongue, so it is vital that you only allow the Truth to come out of your mouth. It could be the difference in an amazing life and a disappointing one.
(Proverbs 18:21)

