

LORI SCHWEITZER

1958 - 1991

Lori Anne Schweitzer, age 32 of Pigeon, passed away Monday, Jan. 14 at her home when a blood clot lodged in her lungs.

She was born Oct. 23, 1958 in Pigeon, daughter of Edwin and Deloris (Langley) Steinman. She was united in marriage to Dale Schweitzer on May 31, 1986 in Caseville.

Mrs. Schweitzer was a 1976 graduate of Caseville High School. She was employed by the Caseville IGA until taking a position with Bay Port State Bank in 1985. She was recently promoted to head teller at the Pigeon branch.

She was a member of the Caseville American Legion Auxiliary Jean Post 543 and attended St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Linkville.

Surviving are her husband, Dale, Pigeon; her parents, Edwin and Deloris, Caseville and two sisters, Betty Steinman and Patti Steinman, both of Saginaw.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, Jan. 17 at 11 a.m. at St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville. Rev. Fr. Richard Meyette officiated with burial in the Caseville Township Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were handled by the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. Memorials may be considered to Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon or the Caseville American Legion Auxiliary.