Pray Against Brutality in War

July 1st, 2023

May the Lord Jesus strengthen you all, dear Heart Dwellers.

I do want to make mention, that I believe President Putin may have dodged a bullet or two this week. Ezekiel and another Heart Dweller had dreams that he was in great danger, but the danger may be past. We never know until the Lord tells us, and so far, He has not mentioned Vladimir since those dreams.

Please keep him in your prayers- he is connected to a "Dead Man's Switch," which means if someone kills him, they blow up the world as well- It is hard to tell but that is the scuttlebutt.

But I have felt extreme fatigue and difficulty staying awake for at least four days.

Jesus began, "You are under a heavy cloud of intercession. All of you feel it, and it comes with different symptoms. Right now, it is a heavy looming, so very heavy looming. Everything is in preparation for the third World War. Last minute arrangements are being carried out. There will be glitches that I create to hold things back, but what is coming is inevitable. I am totally in charge of the timing. There is a ways to go yet. There is time for more preparation. I would like you to circulate this message. There is time."

"The carnage. Human lives and souls lost, although My Mercy will be extra ordinary. It must be, or no one would be saved. Those who have been blinded since childhood, will be given opportunity to see the error of their ways."

Lord, could prayer relieve this incredible fog I am in?

"It is heavy intercession, Clare, so the answer is, 'no.' Just bear with Me, Beloved. Bear with Me and do your best to abstain. The world tensions are also getting to you, there is so much going on right now."

"Beloved family, I do want to remind you that these prayer burdens can be distributed all across the family of God. That means that if you felt deep compassion for the plight of those wounded and dying in the war, by your intention, I count it as a prayer, and that translates into your willingness to give of yourself for their recovery. As I have told you before, a heartfelt sigh is a prayer just as much as one that is spoken. When I was at My weakest, Simon the tanner was taken from out of the crowd of onlookers, and he became a partaker of My Passion. Many of you who have been suffering under various symptoms of fatigue, mental fog, aching bodies, many of you are actually helping to carry My Cross even as Simon did."

Lord, can you please share with us the dynamics of this heaviness and for what it is used?

"You know how your mind must be clear to make decisions, how mental fog affects you and causes you to drift in an empty limbo...well this mental clarity and energy is being applied to those who need it the most in this hour. Whether it be government officials having to make difficult decisions, or the wounded and civilians seeking shelter and medicine. War is terribly disorganizing to the human mind and therefore, they need help to become stabilized, even to pray and seek My help. So much is determined in these times of upheaval. The interruption of familiar routines and activities leaves them in shock and confusion. You, when you feel this heaviness, are helping them to regain their perspective and balance. There is regeneration taking place as they sleep at night, as well.

And we are awake during those hours.

“Do you remember when the woman with the issue of blood, who touched the hem of My garment? Well in some very real ways, those in trauma are touching the hem of My garment through you. You have set your heart and mind to pray for them, and therefore, I take from you and give to them the very bread of life from My heart which lives and breathes inside of you. That is why you, My people, feel this exhaustion and numbness. I take what I can from you and give it to the desperate and needy.

“Routines that were taken up with money making and work, are temporarily interrupted and there is time to think about other more profound things, like day-to-day survival, life, and death. This is an opportunity for Me too, to touch them with My love and draw them closer into a relationship with Me... there is now time for this perspective, which brings the eternal things to the forefront because you are now confronted with the certainty of eternity and what will happen if you die. These are teachable moments. Souls can fall into deep despair, but the offerings I am taking from you, help them to think more clearly and draw closer to Me. There is much grieving and hopelessness Clare, these offerings help them begin to see hope and even consider recovering.”

Oh Jesus, I can hardly fathom the tragic circumstances they find themselves in.

“Can a whole nation perish in one day? The answer is yes, it can. The enemy will leave no stone unturned. A certain force of rage overtakes them where everything is an opportunity for venting and destruction. Pent up frustration and anger will be unleashed with brutality in the act of war. It is a very terrible thing, but this is what happens. Tremendous violence is unleashed, that is why war is so hideous. This is why prayer is so effective, these demons of destruction can be bound by the prayers of the faithful. This will be greatly needed. You see, war is Satan's license to binge on violence and destroy without restraint or apparent consequences.

“My children if you know these things happy you will be if you practice them. You have the power of My Name to conquer these demons and lessen the damage they can do. I urge all of you to pray in My Name against the forces that drive this rage. It will be much to your advantage, whether you pray for those near or far. Remember that all your prayers are recorded in the Book of Life. Not even one petition goes without notice, and you will be rewarded, either in your lifetime on Earth, when you come into a state of desperation or in Heaven, so please open your hearts to those who are suffering and pray for them.”

That was the end of His message.

I can feel it, guys, when I am praying for them. Even the Divine Mercy prayer, which is a repetitive prayer, ‘For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.’ I can really feel the Father’s Heart of Mercy for those who are caught in these terrible situations. So, the Divine Mercy prayer is not just a rote prayer, it is a petition to Father God to have mercy and it is powerful, especially in times of war.

And I have a recording of the Divine Mercy Chaplet that is contemplative on our channel here that I am sure you can find if you look for it, Heartdwellers.org channel, and that would help you enter the spirit. I use classical instruments, oboe, violin, strings, flute, and it is a very contemplative album.

Speaking of albums, I have a new album out, I do not know if it has been mentioned to you or not, but “Left Behind In The Storm” I think is the title of it, and there is some beautiful, a beautiful prayer of repentance in there, and many consoling prayers and I highly recommend it for you and for your loved ones as well as the Divine Mercy prayer. And we are not interested in making money off our music, you can download these things for free on our channel. Just click on the 'Music' tab and go ahead and download them. But they are powerful.

And Saint Faustina, who was given the Divine Mercy Chaplet at the onset of World War Two, oh, what an interesting story. She was a nun in a convent, and she was praying for mercy for the world and the Lord appeared to her many times. Her book is fascinating reading, "Divine Mercy in My Soul." It is a diary, really, of her conversations with Jesus, and the whole idea is that mercy is so needed in a time of war because there are so many that do not know God, do not know anything about God, and the repetitive prayer, when spoken from your heart with true intention, is very powerful.

"Eternal Father, we offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, of Your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and the sins of the whole world." You say that once, and then you repeat ten times, "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us, and on the whole world." "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us, and on the whole world."

I mean, really put your heart into it, these people need mercy, and we all need mercy, we are all going to get a turn when we all need mercy. It is a beautiful prayer and like I said it is a free download, Divine Mercy Chaplet, and our new album, which has a combination of elements on it, I hope you enjoy it. I put it together thinking of what our needs are going to be in those moments.

And then the "Tethered" album, which Amazon, iTunes, sells for an outrageous price because it is four discs- Could not get them to sell it for anything less expensive but our four discs, the downloads are available on our website, so you do not have to buy it - it just happened to get spread around and we had it printed up, and I do have printed copies here as well.

The Lord bless you, dear ones, thank you for praying for us, thank you for your support, and let us all cleave to the Lord and to one another, and we will get through this season in flying colors because our Lord is carrying us through.

Amen? Amen.

Faithfulness to the Poor

July 5th, 2023

For it is written in Matthew 25, verses 31-40, “When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the sheep on His right and the goats on His left.”

“Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by My Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited Me in, I needed clothes and you clothed Me, I was sick and you looked after Me, I was in prison and you came to visit Me.’ “Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink? When did we see You a stranger and invite You in, or needing clothes and clothe You? When did we see You sick or in prison and go to visit You?’

“The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for Me.’ Amen.

Jesus began, “Clare, I accept your sincere apology and repentance. Do not allow this to take you down, just resolve to never do it again. Yes, many were hurt, badly, by your neglect, but now that you know how serious a matter it is to delay charity to the needy, I believe you will not do that again. And yes, it opened the door for Prince to die. You have many enemies, and you must not open doors by negligence. I know there is much on your plate, but you must discern what is MOST important, and that is the welfare of souls, taking care of them with the provision I have entrusted to you. This is not a beating beloved daughter, it is taking you all a step further away from selfishness and moving you towards greater charity and providing, not just for the community, but for others in much greater need.

“How can I entrust you with more of My goodness when you do not do as I wish with what I have given. You see, I can’t, I must withhold it from you and give to another who will be more faithful to execute My will. You are learning, all of you are learning, but you must understand, the buck stops with you. So, if you are preoccupied to the degree that you do not pay attention to what is going on around you, you will fail Me time and time again. So, I am asking you to take this lesson to heart, that’s why I gave you God’s Correction right after you buried Prince.”

“Oh Lord, please help me to catch what is most important, make me aware and help me to listen very carefully and act on it.”

“I have been telling you for months that you were not providing and giving of your time to the poor as I wished you to, but you did not understand how you were failing. So, just to be very clear, do not make any decisions for community needs, until you have met the needs of the little ones who count on you. They have nothing, and I have provided you all with what you need to live simply. You have everything you need, Clare, compared to them. Please also begin to scale down what you think you need. You have been faithful in many ways, but when something slips by you, it is a serious occasion of sin. Please do your utmost not to allow that again, so much depends on your charity, I am counting on you. Please do not let Me down again.”

"I feel horrible Lord."

"I know. That is an indicator of hope. Do not let this lesson pass by you, hold fast to it so you do not do this again. What I provide is not yours to do with as you please, it is Mine and the poor are My first priority. I am counting on you, My Bride. I am counting on all My beloved Heartdwellers. Sow charity and be kind to those around you." And that was the end of His message.

Oh Lord please help me to be more faithful, please help all of us as well. Give us Your heart for the poor and Your fatherly care for them. Please, Lord, please.

God bless you dear Heartdwellers and thank you so much for your prayers and support to help those who have so very little or nothing at all. May the Lord grant us a heart full of charity and compassion for others who are in need of God's provision. Amen.

Dance With Me

July 6th, 2023

The Lord bless you with His joy and His peace, Heart Dwellers.

I have a wonderful message to share with you. It goes back to the early days when the Lord was dancing with me, and He has been wanting me to go back in that direction, but I have been waiting on Him for a message that would take me there. And today He- oh goodness, He did something beautiful, and it is so reminiscent of the early days when I was on You Tube before I got kicked out.

Anyway, during prayer today, during the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet is the time when I listen for the Lord's voice when everyone else is praying. And what a beautiful message He gave me, but He began by taking my hand and walking me out to the dance floor and just dancing with me to waltzes, one after another. It is interesting because I prayed and said 'Holy Spirit, please pick the songs that the Lord wants played and I put it on shuffle, and many of them were waltzes, and they were just so perfect.

All I can tell you is that I was just out of my mind with joy, it was so liberating and so sweet and so beautiful dancing with Him. So, I am going to go ahead and share this message with you.

Oh Lord, dancing with You is so sublime....

He quipped, "You are out of practice, you need more practice with Me.

"It is a great source of joy for both of us. And I want My Brides to return to the dance floor and experience this wonder with Me. The world is strung so tight, things looming everywhere, dark things, demons unleashed more and more, chaos every day, therefore I need you all to come up much higher, because even while these vile things are going on, there are still times of celebration in Heaven, or none would continue to exist, so deep and dark is the sadness.

"I want you, My Brides, to experience joy with Me every day. I want to take you in My arms and swirl you round and round on the dance floor of Heaven. And how can this come about, you ask? The answer is simply by My grace. Simply dispose yourself in complete trust and abandon, put on a good playlist, enter into the music, and wait.

Of course, pray to the Holy Spirit and ask Him to arrange the songs.

"I will come for you and take your hand and we will dance together. What an incomparable joy this is for Me. With all I must see and suffer around the world, without intermission, this is one time My Heart can recover, being with My Beautiful Bride, who loves Me with all of her heart, feeling her hands holding Me securely as we move to the sound of the music...oh what a joy that is for Me.

"Please My Brides, hear My entreaty and come forward to dance with Me. Even you men who consider yourselves Brides, you need not have any shame because I transform you as we dance and truly you are My Bride in those moments. There is absolutely nothing carnal or unclean about these sublime times together, it is pure unspeakable joy and abandon, it is a speck of Heaven come down to console you, My loved ones. Have no fear about impropriety-

Whether He means unclean thoughts and that kind of thing.

"For it does not exist in Heaven. Thoughts like that happen on Earth and in the atmosphere, where the demons still have permission to operate, but not in Heaven. When you are with Me in this way, indeed, you are in Heaven.

And I wanted to share- For me today, I was simply transported into His arms as we danced to a waltz and swirled round and round on the dance floor, it was dizzying! I had to smile; I could not help but smile as I recognized what I was doing with Jesus. It was ecstatic and liberating. What an incredible joy!! There are no words to express the freedom and happiness that overcame my usual serious demeanor. Oh, Mother Clare, you are so serious! Well, not today! Lord, You are so much fun!

Jesus continued, "I was hoping you would say that. I get nervous too, thinking about how My Bride feels about My dancing style. But I could tell you were brimming over with joy so that put My heart at ease. Does it surprise you, that I am self-conscious about dancing? Well, it should not because I am always thinking about each one of you and thinking of ways to bring you happiness. Yes, I do think of ways to bring you joy on this dark and oppressive planet. I think hard and then work on your Heavenly home and plan how to make everything better for you.

"I hope it makes you happy to know that I care that much about you, because I really do. So please, follow My directions to you and find some good dance music...hint...I love to waltz. Many of your worship songs are waltzes, and they are just perfect for Me. When a more quiet song comes on, I draw you closer to My Heart and rest My chin on your head...lost in a sweet, sweet moment that strengthens Me. And do not allow anyone to tell you that I am God and never get weary. I do get weary from the suffering I must see and experience every day, all over the world. Oh, I do look forward to the Rapture, truly, when My Bride will not have to undergo these torments anymore.

"And you will see as we dance that My Holy Spirit has adorned you with the very perfect details of what you are wearing, flowers in your hair, a veil, and most of all, an inner sense of peace in My presence. Clare, I long to bring you peace every single day. I long to relieve the daily stress and tensions you all must live under. I long with a desire you cannot fathom, to take you off the Earth and into Heaven where all these burdens are gone, and you feel light as a feather."

Well, yes Lord, I did feel like a feather being tossed about by the wind and it was exhilarating!

"It was that way for Me as well Beloved. We are a match made in Heaven. And each of you, My Brides are also a match made in Heaven for Me. I have told you before, and I will repeat it again for you now. When My Father took life from within His own being, it was a most unique and precious particle that was not duplicated by any other in the universe. Ah yes, you are all one of a kind. And that is why it is so devastating for Us when We lose a soul to Satan, for that God particle that you are, can never be replaced."

Now, I wanted to say here He did say 'Us'. 'It is so devastating for Us.' Here He was talking about the Holy Trinity- The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit are one, just like we have a spirit, a soul, and a body. It is the exact same way with Him, and because He made us in His image, so, whenever I refer to 'We', I am talking about Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

"Ah, yes, you are all one of a kind, and that is why it is so devastating for Us when We lose a soul to Satan, for that God particle that you are can never be replaced. It is gone – It is gone forever and there is a most unique place within US that is now gone and will never be filled by anyone else for all eternity. So, you see I, We, do know the pain of death. To lose just one soul, one God particle of Our Own Being, is devastating and irreplaceable for all of Eternity."

"And so that is why you must never be jealous of anyone. You have qualities We celebrate as you return to Us, and in a very real sense make Us feel whole again. Some intellectuals and theologians will accuse you of heresy, that God in any way, shape, or form can be lacking, but they are wrong, we feel the loss of a soul more profoundly that you can ever imagine."

"Oh, it is true My Bride, believe Me, it is so true. You are unique, no one can replace you, so never be jealous of another because they do not have the qualities that duplicate your qualities, so they can never be a replacement for you."

"I leave off with this message now, with one word- dance with Me!!! Bring Me joy, distract Me from the constant pain of loss. Please Beloved, take Me seriously, and bring Me joy as only you can do."

And that was the end of His message.

And this place that we are living in, the mountains, I named it The Refuge of His Sacred Heart – not a Refuge for people to come running to, but a Refuge where God can come and experience love in His Sacred Heart from His creatures.

So, the Lord bless you, dear ones, and please do put together a good song list and put it on random. Allow Him- Allow Him the joy of dancing with you.

God bless you.

My Words to Young Satanists

July 7th, 2023

In Psalm 37:7 we read, “Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for Him; do not fret when people succeed in their ways, when they carry out their wicked schemes.” Amen.

Jesus began speaking, “Just remember that the curses you speak against My prophets, you are speaking against yourselves. You cannot, with impunity, wish evil on others without it visiting you even up to an increase of four-fold. You are wise to pray against what is planned against you for this season My Beloved, but remember, no matter what happens, I have your back. They are permitted only so much and no further.”

“Thank You Lord.”

“But do pray for them, they would make wonderful Christians, Jesus continued. “You see, they do not understand the principles governing love because they have not known love, not real love, self-giving, self-sacrificing love. If they had experienced this, they would turn away from cursing and reviling Me and My vessels and join in the fight against evil. As it is now, some abandon the dark paths because they discovered the limitations of their power, but I want them to abandon that path because they felt My Love pierce their hearts. This is why I need your prayers. With all My heart I want them to receive My true, divine love.

“This is not some kind of mechanism whereby someone can overcome others with the expertise of their curses, no, this is the longing of every human heart being satisfied with love and acceptance, even to finding a secure home in My arms. If they had truly experienced My profound love for them, no longer would they seek the darkness because the light is so pleasurable and satisfying. Whereas the darkness is so very bitter and threatening, causing them to be on guard at all times. Covens do fight among themselves; they do curse one another. Many of you who go about cursing others will be converting to the faith, flooding into My arms to be loved and cherished as you have never before experienced.

“You were cheated out of the love and protection I intended for your life. What you do not understand is that My intention was for you to have an abundance of love, nourishment, respect, and security as a child, but the very one who robbed you of that has convinced you to serve him. You see, I gave graces to your parents so that they would love and cherish you, but Satan, filled with jealousy and fury plotted to steal that from you so you would have a painful childhood, setting you up for bitterness and hatred later in life. Bitterness and hatred drive him to do evil night and day, never getting his fill of revenge against God because he was kicked out of Heaven. Some of you were violated as children, your innocence stolen from you. I did not do that, Satan plotted and arranged circumstances so that would happen, so that you would be stripped of dignity and deeply injured, deprived, beaten, cursed and feeling so bad and rejected, that for the sake of your own personal survival, you turned to witchcraft to get back at those who hurt you, to protect yourself in the future from others who would hurt you, and you vowed to never let that happen again.

“Then you were lied to and told that I was responsible for the bad behavior of others who hurt you. That all Christians are hypocrites and pretend to be good, but secretly do bad things. Well, sad to say, there are some people who pretend to be Mine but are taking orders from Satan to turn you against Me. There are other ones, of My people, who are weak and can't always do the right thing because they are selfishly attached to their own agendas. All of this is true, My people are not perfect, but they have all made the decision to try and do the right thing.

"Some of you were ostracized from social groups in high school because you didn't have the nice things others had, because you came from the wrong side of the tracks, because you were looked down on as being stupid, rejected by the "beautiful" people, the "in" crowd. Many of those who were self-righteous, were Christians who didn't have My heart of love for you, rather they shamed Me by discriminating against you. I wanted them to reach out to you, but they didn't dare because they were accepted, and to befriend you would mean to be rejected by their peer group."

"Excuse me Lord, but I was one of those that was rejected by the in crowd and I hurt very much for those who were unwanted, the ones who were last to be picked by the team."

"Clare, that is because you were born with a seed of goodness in your heart. Many seeds of goodness were sown in the hearts of outcasts, but they were severely abused and disrespected by their parents and family. So they carried a chip on their shoulder and had to be bigger and badder than others, just to survive. I want to heal and restore them, because they are broken and bruised and have no joy in their lives. My very Heart aches for them, every day as I see them live their lives wounded and emotionally crippled.

"I have taught Christian children to love unconditionally, but they judge the faults they see in others, while ignoring their own faults. There are some who reject the ways I have taught them, and they have hurt others because of it, but then I have My warriors, the ones who war against their own bad behavior and do all they can in their power to do the right thing. Satan hates those, but I don't want you to lose sight of the fact that Satan is a fallen angel who was kicked out of Heaven because he was jealous and wanted to harm others.

"What I hope you will consider is that Satan is the one who set up hurting souls for a miserable childhood, so they would turn bitter, want revenge and learn his ways of hurting others. He accuses Me, but he is the one who ruins families, causes divorces, lures your parents into alcohol and drugs so they cannot be there for you. He does all this to cause you to feel victimized until you get to the point where you either kill yourself or take up his practices of cursing to hurt others. I am sorry for the people who said they belonged to Me, and yet rejected and judged you. Please forgive them for the harm they did. I apologize to you for their bad behavior. Please forgive Me for their behavior. I did not teach them that. When they did that, they were inspired by Satan to do it so you would end up hating Me.

"So, now I will explain to you the quality of My real believers. First of all, they are kind, they go out of their way to do good to others, even strangers. They will not judge you for your lifestyle and choices. If you have hurt them, they will forgive you. Many of them have done the very same things before they gave their lives to Me. When My true disciples give, they expect nothing in return. They never violate your person or make moves against you, they are pure. Please understand Me when I tell you that those who say they represent Me, priests, pastors and leaders, if they do these things, they have fallen into the snares Satan set for them to sin. His whole existence revolves around hating Me and lying about Me, causing My servants to stumble and sin so that you will hate Me even more.

"My faithful servants will honor you, be understanding and patient, especially because they have fallen so much in their own lives, they understand human weakness, and the power of sin to ensnare. They will be compassionate and encouraging and do what they can to improve your life through giving and good counsel.

My servants will respect you and honor your free will, and do not condemn you. They will pray for you to know Me, and when you do know Me, you will love Me, because I love you with a love so big, a thousand oceans could not contain it.

“When you come to Me, with sorrow for how you have hurt others and sinned in the past, I will forgive you of everything and wipe away all the stains of sin from you. Then I will flood you with My authentic love, and make you feel so good, you will wonder why you ever thought anything bad about Me. Then, if you desire My company, I will begin to speak to you and lead you out of all your troubles, into a life of fulfillment. I will give you the strength to persevere, I will provide you with resources to help you live your dreams, I will show you the wonderful gifts in your soul that have been buried by hatred and anger. I will walk you out of that prison of darkness, and into a sweet and fulfilling life. I will protect you from the backlash of the coven you were in. All these things I will do for you that you may have a new and fulfilling life, free from hatred and bitterness. I will frequently shower My love on you in such a way that you will feel intoxicated. I will heal those wounded places and introduce you to My saints in Heaven, the ones who have been praying for you. These are all just the beginning of blessings in your lives. I love you, I want you to be in Heaven with Me for eternity, and I will do all in My power to help you understand just how much I truly love you.

“Here are a few reality checks: I am not Satan’s brother, I am the second person of the Holy Trinity, God in a physical body, who lived the example of the Father’s heart, so you would know Me. I am not a cruel God, the places in the old testament where entire cities were wiped out, were cities where they tortured and killed infants, raped and killed children, worshiped Satan and used demons to torture and kill. I wiped them out because they were doing nothing but evil, and even their children were hybrids with demon aliens, and could only do evil. Their animals likewise were sodomized and infected with demons. Everything they touched had been turned into evil and had to be removed from the earth.

*“As far as suffering goes, no one suffered as much as I did to pay the price for your sins, but certain people, before they are sent into a body, have made an agreement with Me that they will suffer for mankind and that their lives will be so terribly sad, but when I take them home, they will be rewarded, beyond anything you can imagine. I am not the author of pain, Satan is, and I only allow his curses to land when my children need to learn lessons. Everything I do is because I love that soul. Everything I allow is turned into wonder and good in the end. You will learn more about My love for you and guidelines of protection as you grow into this new life at heartdwellers.org and also Still Small Voice on Bit Chute and Rumble.”* And that was the end of His message.

God bless you dear Heartdwellers and may the Lord grant us the grace to continue to pray for the conversion of those who persecute us. Let us rejoice in His service!

Jesus is a Necessity, Not an Option!

July 11th, 2023

Greetings dear Family, a Christian brother once wrote that, “A taste of Hell can be grace.” We know this statement has merit as God has granted graces to His messengers over the years who He has allowed to briefly visit Hell, so they can tell others. Most of these experiences are horrifyingly similar.

The book, "23 Minutes in Hell", is a vivid depiction of what awaits those souls who do not know Jesus.

It is written by Bill Wiese, a Christian, who had out of body experiences and visions of Hell, one lasting 10 seconds and the other lasting 23 minutes, which must have seemed like a lifetime. Years ago, after reading this book, which had such a dramatic impact on me, I bought several copies and sent it out to my relatives and friends who had not yet invited Jesus into their hearts. Needless to say, there was backlash and some have not spoken to me since. Totally worth it to try to lead them to the Lord so He can save their soul from eternal damnation.

One of our sisters had a very realistic dream and message from Jesus which I would like to share with all of you. Here is her dream.

I was in a class, where my priest, dressed in priestly garments and a golden robe, walked around and taught us. He changed into Jesus from time to time. I was in awe of Jesus in him. He taught that although the devil could call each of us as owner of the world, he can only claim one third for himself. I also heard something like Revelation 9.

When I Googled Chapter 9, verses 17-21 stuck out to me which reads, "The horses and riders I saw in my vision looked like this: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulfur. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke and sulfur. A third of mankind was killed by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulfur that came out of their mouths. The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like snakes, having heads with which they inflict injury. The rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the work of their hands; they did not stop worshiping demons, and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood – idols that cannot see or hear or walk. Nor did they repent of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts."

Sister continued, I asked Jesus what the dream was about and He immediately replied, "It is a reminder for you not to forget that those who do not know Me, perish. For many still think that there is no last judgment, and certainly, no devil. But if there is no devil, then there is no evil either, and then everything is allowed. So, people make the world as they want it, without thinking about the consequences of what they do. Therefore, as your God and as your High Priest, this is an urgent wake up call, especially to the priests, that you show your spiritual children what it means to be Mine, and what it can mean if you remain caught in the clutches of the enemy.....certain Death!

"What shall I do with you, if you do not belong to Me, but to the devil? I have no use for you, I cannot take you to Me on the basis of free will. There is no space between the good and the evil in which I could let you dwell." And here I'd like to add, at the end, God will destroy the influence Satan has on mankind, and if a soul does not know Jesus, then they will experience a similar fate as the devil.....one of eternal torment.

The Lord continued, "Make this clear to yourselves and become serious in your dealings with Me. I am not an option. I am a necessity!" And that was the end of His message."

Dear ones, Revelation 9 trumpets the judgment of God. In the first four seals, these are the "four horsemen" bringing tyranny, war, famine, and death on the earth. In the first four trumpets, these are the ecological destruction of vegetation, seas, fresh waters, and sky. The last three seals focus upon heaven: the cry of the martyrs, cosmic disturbances, and the heavenly prelude to the seven trumpets. The last three trumpets speak of hell, in terms of the demonic.

Precious Heartdwellers, in the time we have left, let us pray, travail and double our efforts to reach the unsaved with the love of Jesus. In Romans 6:23 we read, “For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.” Amen!

Things Are Converging

“Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be in dread of them, for it is the Lord your God who goes with you. He will not leave you or forsake you.” That’s in Deuteronomy 31:6.

Jesus began speaking, “So, many sorrows and so many troubles have swept over the people of Earth. It is truly tragic at this time in Earth’s history. I know how you feel Clare, but there are so many horrible things transpiring on earth right now. Try not to get too caught up in your own issues.” He was saying this because it has been stormy.

He continued, “As things heat up in the world your everyday issues will become more and more insignificant. I want you all to be ready to lay down your petty differences to embrace the truly wounded and hurting in this world. Children under instruction, you cannot help Me with others if you are all caught up in your own petty dramas. I want you to focus on the seriousness of the world’s situation and prepare yourselves to help people cope.

“Everything from demon-aliens to war on your soil, which is soon to come. Limit your time on the internet but stay connected, keep track of what is going on, but do not soak in it. You do however need to know how things are shaping up.”

“Lord, I see Zelensky was shunned at a NATO meeting....what does this mean?”

“It means he is on his own, truly he is just a puppet in this game. I love you dearly, but still I must reign you in sometimes so you do not become a danger to yourself and others.” He has been very evasive with me lately and that makes me sad and insecure.

Jesus continued, “Meekness is the key quality I am looking for and wanting to develop in you. You are coming along Beloved, but try even harder to be meek. I miss you; I want to hold you and hug you and just keep your head upon My Heart. So, please cleave to that secure knowledge when I am not speaking to you directly. Hold firm to that understanding and let nothing dissuade you from that truth.

“A lot of this will be over soon, please keep your eyes on My people and their needs as you navigate rough waters. The situation is dire. The attack on your country is imminent, this is not just posturing, it is the real thing. Just the way a bear circles you looking for the vulnerable spot, so real is this situation. You remember I showed you North Koreans landing on the eastern shore of Florida, stealth, by night, penetrating your country? And that is not even to bring up the many cells that are poised for this attack. It is a powder keg and one match could set off the whole thing. Right now, it is a game of tip toeing around the inevitable possibilities.

“Your country is very vulnerable on the eastern coast line. Many munitions and operations proceed from that area. It is like the first wall of defense. Right now, it is almost like a game of cat and mouse, prayer will avail much. I love you tenderly, stop questioning My love for you and take your medicine like a big girl.

“Things are converging, earthquakes, wars and rumors, asteroids and demon aliens. Yes, do put up that video again.” Here He means the video on demon aliens, and that was the end of the Lord’s message.

Ezekiel has been seeing, in vision, India and sharks getting so aggressive they actually come up on the shoreline and pull people into the water. Tiger attacks are also increasing. All the animals are becoming extremely aggressive and killing humans. I wonder if dark matter has been unleashed in the area, to reduce the population?

Dear Hindu people, please stop murdering Christians and call on Jesus to save you from being devoured by the animals. Give him your life and forsake your many gods who are demons masquerading as good guys, but they do nothing when your life is in danger. Jesus Christ is your only hope, and despite how you have persecuted and murdered Christians, He still loves you and will save you if you call upon Him with a sincere heart, in repentance for the evil you have done. He loves you, BOTTOM LINE, and He does not want to see you devoured by these creatures.

God bless you dear Heartdwellers, and thank you for your prayers and intercession for the unsaved souls.

Don't Let the Sun Go Down on Your Anger

July 24th, 2023

Greetings dear Family, today the Lord wants to speak to us about exercising self-control when dealing with our anger, to avoid the traps of falling into sin.

Growing up I had my first real taste of visceral anger, directed at me, when I was about eight years old. It was Easter time and I was thrilled at the prospect of having my first and very own Easter basket. Imagining that it would soon be filled with yummy chocolate treats and candies. Most of you know, that my siblings and I were appallingly deprived of sweets and junk food in general in our youth. This year was going to be the exception....I couldn't wait to see what my parents were going to put in our baskets.

We picked out our grass, dyed Easter eggs and I tricked out my basket to the nines using a wide variety of colored markers and ribbons. I was so excited Saturday night, I couldn't sleep and didn't even mind the anticipated, extra-long church service the next morning. Upon waking, I ran to my basket and notice it was exactly the way I left it the night before. Hummm, I was thinking "what is wrong with this picture?" I looked in my sister, Kathy's basket, and hers had a pack of grape gum in it. Just then, she was by my side and told my brother, David, and I not to touch her gum. She emphasized "under no circumstances" were we to take any of her gum.

Well, that irritated David and he said when Kathy wasn't looking, we would each have a stick of her grape gum. I knew it was wrong, but went along with it, being the youngest and feeling dejected because of the great lack of sugar in my basket. Let me tell you, when Kathy found out, I have never seen someone so angry. Not even to this day have I seen someone so upset. She was red hot mad and went on and on and on about it.

About then, my Father arrived home, and with him were chocolate eggs, jelly beans and yellow marsh mellow baby chicks. Boy, did I feel awful and was filled with remorse. I told Kathy I was sorry, but it didn't seem to help, she was still furious. Much later in life, as adults, I apologized to Kathy again about taking her gum without her permission and she laughed and said, "Just the other day I was thinking about that Easter and the gum incident. I can't believe I got so upset over a stick of gum," and she apologized for her attitude and asked for my forgiveness. After saying she was sorry and removing the seeds of bitterness from her heart, 18 months later Kathy passed away.

The Bible tells us not to let the sun go down on our anger, because anger can grow in our hearts and leave us bitter and resentful. We read in Ephesians 4:26 and 27, "In your anger do not sin": Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold."

Jesus began speaking, "If left unchecked, anger will start to control you and give Satan an open door into your lives. My dear ones, don't let anger settle upon you; let go of your pride, forgive each other, love each other and help one another. Begin anew each morning."

"Often times, My people let anger overwhelm and control you. A heart filled with wrath can cause suffering and pain." That is so true, I was scarred for life over my sister's outburst of hateful venom as a youngster, so much so, that I never, ever wanted to see that behavior again for the rest of my life. As a result, I avoided Kathy growing up and drew closer to my other siblings.

Jesus continued, “When you are truly Mine and belong to Me, you are called to resemble Me. You should not lie to one another, but speak truthfully. Do not sin in your anger by using violence, malice, stealing or taking My name in vain. These behaviors and attitudes have no place in the lives of My followers. Show compassion to others, forgive because you have been forgiven, and imitate Me in everything you do. By the power of the Holy Spirit, you can put off the deeds of your old self and become Christ like.

“Sin has an opportunity to enter into your lives when it becomes uncontrolled anger and you fail to control it. Please precious ones, deal with your anger swiftly, lay down your pride and exercise self-control over your fleshly emotions. Lasting anger and holding grudges, leads to negative consequences. When you allow anger to grow in your hearts, you become bitter, hateful and unforgiving which hinders our relationship, and those of others.

“When you dwell on your bitterness for extended periods of time, this gives the devil an opportunity to tempt you into sin. Satan wants to stir up and amplify your anger so that you will give way to your feelings, causing you to sin against Me and cause damage by hurting others. When your temper leads you into sin, quickly confess your sins, seek forgiveness from Me and anyone you have hurt. Allow My Spirit to work within you by practicing and cultivating self-control. Although this work is Mine, you will produce good fruit by working in union with the Holy Spirit by listening, yielding to Our guidance and being obedient by storing My words within your heart.” And that was the end of His message.

We have found that immediately removing ourselves from a situation and praying can help control our angry feelings. If you are having a conversation with someone and it becomes heated, walk away, talk to the Lord about how you feel, pray for the other person and for the grace of brotherly love and self-control. Seeking the Lord’s help and entrusting the situation to Him is vital if we struggle with our tempers.

We love you, dwellers of the Lord’s heart, and thank you for all your heartfelt prayers and support. We are praying for you and your families, for God’s blessings and favor to be always upon you.

Intimacy, Why It Alludes Us

July 28th, 2023

Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” That’s in Matthew 22:37.

Mother Clare began, My precious ones, what does it mean to be a Christian? We say we are in love with Jesus, and want to serve Him with all our hearts. But what if our hearts are heavily influenced by powerful figures in our lives? What about those men and women we admire and emulate? And what about the norms of the society we live in, when we say we are serving Him, looking deeply into our hearts, in those private moments alone, when dreams and goals challenge the ways of God?

But what about those times when we struggle to root out sin in our lives, and struggle to become conformed to the image of Christ Jesus and abandon the perks and status of the society we live in? As we mature from childhood we long to be accepted and loved by those around us. We want to be admired and spoken well of. Our pastors, teachers and accomplished friends in the world have their social standing determined by what they believe is most important to them. We strive to conform to that image so we too can be successful and well thought of. But what if those standards of the world go in direct opposition to what Jesus taught? What if we were ridiculed for what we stand for? What if the friends and people we look up to do not understand the level of our commitment to be like Christ?

This is the acid test. How far will you walk with Jesus when He walks off into the slums, the desert, the leper colony, while our pastors, friends and relatives watch us take steps into the life of the gospels that they personally rejected as too extreme. What if they even label this gospel way of life ridiculous and foolish? When you sense the Lord leading you into deeper waters, waters others make fun of, waters others condemn your convictions as heresy, waters that sever us from the world's acceptance, what will we do?? Follow Jesus and lose everything, even the respect of those we looked up to? Or will we artfully dodge those extremes that Jesus lived and back ourselves up, to fall into line with popular opinion and life style?

Dear ones, I backed away from the radical gospel call because I still wanted the accolades of the world. I still wanted to be well off, beautifully groomed and dressed, respected by my pastor and his wife, approved of by his congregation, so I backed away from the call Jesus put in my heart. Then one night I had a dream. I was on a passenger ship at sea and went down to the lower deck. The captain was standing there before a table and he said, "The Lord called...you missed Him. But He will call again." I cannot convey to you how crushed and disappointed I felt in that moment. God had called me, but I missed His call.

I share this with you because some of you are hungry for a deeper walk with Jesus. He has tried to get your attention so that you would pursue the very special call on your life, but you dismissed it thinking it was too different, and unacceptable to your peers. If you had responded to this radical call, you would have been ridiculed and criticized as a religious nut case. But somewhere deep down inside your heart, you had recognized something so deep, so pure and so intimate, that you began to follow it.

When your friends heard about it, they put it down, ridiculed it and warned you not to go down that path, because it didn't conform to what they'd been taught in the Bible and their prosperous way of life. But there was something inside of you that still felt so much more of Jesus in that path. When you considered what it would cost you, you began to agree with others and criticized it as being false and unpractical. It certainly would not provide you with the six-figure income you wanted to support your lifestyle and still have much to give away.

So, now you are on the fence, but leaning towards the respectable Christian path that all your friends are living. But the hunger for true intimacy didn't go away. So you buried yourself in the Scriptures thinking that more knowledge would satisfy that longing for Jesus. But the more you studied and immersed yourself in the Scriptures, the more you recognized how far short of the true Christian life you were living, and that intimate connection with Jesus alluded you.

Scripture teaches, "knowledge puffs up but love edifies." You can pride yourself in what you learn, but it just doesn't connect you to that intimacy that is missing in your life. But Jesus does not give up, the Holy Spirit does not give up, the ache in your heart remains, especially when you see others who have that intimate connection, you feel jealous and even challenged by their devotion, but try as you will, it continues to allude you.

My precious ones, if you want all of Jesus, you must give Him all. You cannot bow to social norms, not even Christian ones. You cannot consider what your pastor or relatives think. You cannot continue to hold onto worldly agendas, you must be stripped of all you hold dear in this world, to have Him, the true pearl of great price. The Kingdom of God is like a merchant who found the most exquisite and perfect pearl he had ever seen, buried in a field. So, he sold everything he had to purchase that field and obtain this most precious pearl.

This parable teaches us that to have all of Jesus, we must give all of what we have. When we have finally shown Him that nothing in this world matters more to us than that intimate relationship with our Bride groom, and we are pursuing Him with all our heart, regardless of the price or what people will say, then, He will give it. He said it, "when you search for Me with your whole heart, you will find Me."

Lord Jesus, thank You for the priceless gift of Your word and Your church, please show us what we are holding back from You. Show us how we prefer men's opinions over Your Holy Words, and give us the courage to pursue You with our whole heart, until we finally have that sweet, intimate friendship that our heart longs for. Amen.
