There are several established contexts for lifelong learning beyond traditional "brick and mortar" schooling:

- Home schooling involves learning to learn or the development of informal learning patterns
- Adult education or the acquisition of formal qualifications or work in life
- Continuing education which often describes extension or not-for-credit courses offered by higher education institutions
- Knowledge work which includes professional development and on-the-job training
- Personal learning environments or self-directed learning using a range of sources and tools including online applications
- E-learning is available at most colleges and universities or to individuals learning independently.

Describe your life learning experiences and total hours of performing this job.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the respondent to write their life learning experiences and total hours of performing this job.

Successfully completing and passing an environmental, health and safety course. This includes an employer's course, online training, seminars, webinars etc.

Please provide personal resume, copies of course certificate of completion, course title, course provider, number of hours to take the course and other pertinent information.
