Medina City Schools Hall of Fame Committee Names Inductees to the Class of 2019

MEDINA, OH-The Medina City Schools' Hall of Fame Committee recently selected the inductees to the Class of 2019. The Hall of Fame recognizes and honors individuals who have made important contributions and provided extraordinary service to their community and chosen field. This honor also recognizes non-graduates who have served as positive role models for Medina City School students and have significantly promoted and supported the District.

There are five categories in which individuals can be nominated: Academic/Career/Life Accomplishments; Athletic Accomplishments; Cultural/Performing Arts; Special Honorary Achievement; and Major Contributions to the Medina City Schools. The 2019 inductees are honored in the following categories: Bill Biegel and Roger Smalley, Academic/Career/Life Accomplishments and Athletic Accomplishments, Donny Roys and Lori Koenig-Hawkins, all of which are Medina High School graduates. These individuals will officially be inducted into the Medina City Schools' Hall of Fame during a ceremony in the spring of 2021.
