TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the time of the Reformation, although England broke away from papal authority under Henry VIII, a silent majority clung to the Catholic faith. Henry's eldest daughter, Mary, restored the "old religion" in a fierce persecution of Protestants (she is called "Bloody Mary" for good reason.) His youngest daughter, Elizabeth, rejected papal ties. Under her reign, beginning with legislation in 1593, Catholics were persecuted again, and only the very wealthy could afford the fines for not attending Anglican services on Sunday. They were called "recusants," from a Latin word meaning "refuse," since they refused to attend the liturgy of the Church of England. Many families maintained Catholic tradition in secret, and today their descendants claim "Recusancy" as a mark of family pride. For generations they sent their young people abroad to be educated in convents and monasteries. It is not surprising that the first monastery in colonial America springs from Holland with the daughters of patrician English recusant families. Port Tobacco, Maryland, proved fruitful soil for the Carmelite tradition.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Mañana celebramos la fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Carmen, reconocida en Chile como Maipú. Chile es un país con mucha industria marinera y la Virgen del Carmen es la patrona de los marineros por el peligro al cual se exponen en el mar.

Los frailes Carmelitas han difundido la devoción a la Virgen del monte Carmelo desde el siglo XIII. En aquella época María regaló el escapulario al general de los Carmelitas, Simón Stock, prometiendo que todos los que lo usasen serían recibidos por ella en el cielo, evitando así el infierno. Con el tiempo el escapulario Carmelitano se modificó para uso de todo cristiano. Por esto ella es patrona de todo oficio que tiene peligro de muerte como el de los soldados, camioneros, pilotos, troqueros, etc.

Por entender el escapulario como algo mágico, Nuestra Señora del Carmen ha sido tomada como patrona de los pandilleros porque viven en peligro de ser matados en sus riñas callejeras. Piensan que llevar puesto el escapulario es lo necesario para evitar el infierno e ignoran que usar el escapulario es vivir como María, en paz y al servicio de los demás.

Dear Saint Joseph's Parish,

Hello and God Bless everyone. On Saturday, July 28th I would like to meet the heads of each group here at St. Joe's. If you have a Catholic Daughters of the American's group here, I would like to meet the Regent and/or the officers. If you are with one of the ministries under the Religious Education program such as Life-teen, I would like to meet the leaders. Any and all members of each group are welcomed. Also any group that uses our buildings and grounds. This includes school personal and all parish employees.

I would like to know; The name of your group, names of the leadership, and a brief description of your ministry.

I would ask for your patience concerning changes. I realize change can be difficult but we need to work together so that all may do the mission which God has chosen us to do. It is different for each person and each group. Let us all make this work!

I am here to support you and guide your groups in financial and/or spiritual matters when needed. I enjoy working with the different groups of the parish and I hope to visit your group soon. I ask for your patience.

I hope and pray you will be able to join me on Saturday, July 28th morning mass which is at 7:00 am. Brunch will be provided.

After the meet and greet, I would like to meet as many groups as possible, one on one.

Your Brother in Christ,
Rev. Robert A. Rodriguez

2017 was a record-setting year for Knights of Columbus charitable work with an unprecedented $185.6 million in donations and 75.6 million hours of service provided worldwide. The monetary value of the service hours is valued at $1.9 billion based on an estimate by Independent Sector, a network for nonprofit foundations that values a 2017 volunteer hour at $24.69.

"Once again, the Knights of Columbus showed the enormous difference we can make in the lives of others by putting our faith in action," said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. "The needs of many of our communities were particularly great in 2017, especially in the wake of historic hurricanes in Houston, South Florida, Puerto Rico and much of the Caribbean."

If you are a Catholic man interested in becoming a Knight, please contact our council at 520-303-4791 or by email at Kofc8813@yahoo.com

"News You Can Use"

Pre-K to 6th Grades:

As we continue to enjoy summer vacation, we ask that parents continue to talk to their child about the Gospel and Homily every Sunday.

This week's topic of conversation with your child could be the 4th Commandment: "Honor your father and mother. – respect your parents"

Talk with them about how parents are not their best friends. Parents are their guides in growing up with the right morals and attitudes to be successful in life. They need to trust their parents to talk about the decisions they face every day in life.

We are in need of teachers and volunteers. If you would like to share your faith and love for Our Lord Jesus Christ, Please contact the Parish Center with your name and phone number.

Important Dates:

August 5th: Religious Education Registration after the 7:00, 9:15, 11:00, and 1:15 Masses in the Activity Room in the Parish Center.
