Richard H. Stewart, Jr. American Legion, Post #543 Donates to Operation North State

Operation North State (ONS) with a check for $1,000.00. Post #543 raises money throughout the year to fund the direct support of Brunswick County veterans by its' more than 200 members and assists other service organizations performing missions that complement the goals of the American Legion.

Operation North State currently offers eighteen “unique” military support service programs for North Carolina's deployed troops and veterans-in-need. These include the annual North Carolina Cares Christmas Box Project to deployed troops and Top Shelf Fishin' Festivals held throughout the State for wounded warriors.”
