

Track your expenses.

Welcome to Realtyzam Accounting.

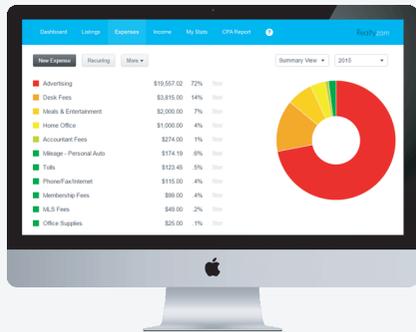

Realtyzam Accounting is a simple accounting / bookkeeping software built exclusively for real estate agents. It helps you track all your income & expenses and instantly generates the report you need for your taxes.

Accounting that's stupid easy.

Realtyzam Accounting is all about simplicity. Our clean, easy to understand interface makes it super easy to track your expenses.

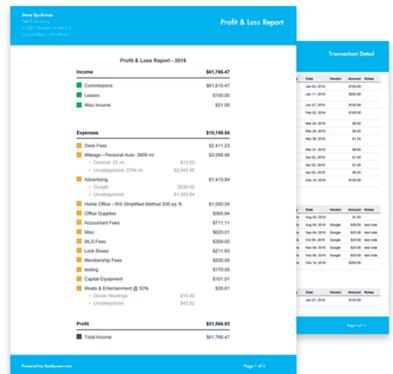

You can even link your bank account or credit card and Realtyzam will automatically download and categorize your transactions every night.

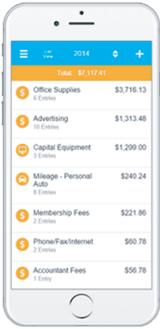

Taxes are a breeze!

You will absolutely love Realtyzam at tax time. It literally takes 10 seconds to generate the report you need for your quarterly or year-end taxes.

Simply print it out, hand it to your tax guy, and you're done. It gives them everything they need, exactly the way they need it to do your taxes.

Ditch the shoe box.

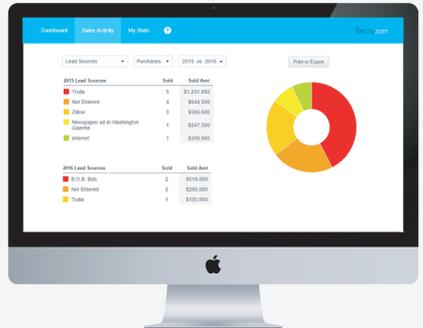

With Realtzam you can upload receipts for any expense using your computer, tablet, or from your phone with our free mobile app.

It automatically stores a digital copy of the receipt and links it to that expense. If you ever need to see it again, simply click on the expense and boom...there's your receipt.

Track your profit and expenses on any listing or buyer.

With Realtzam you can track your expenses, broker fees, and profit on each listing or buyer.

You can even run reports that shows you your average commission, average expenses, buyer and seller conversion rates, which lead sources generate most of your sales, and so much more.

Loved by agents everywhere.

9 out of 10 users who try Realtzam say they like it. What makes it so special is that it is so easy-to-use. Any real estate agent can pick it up and instantly understand it...it's that simple and intuitive.

Simple.
