- Grace is unrecompensed favor.
- Grace is uncaused by the recipient, originating from the giver alone.
- Grace can never incur a debt, there are no conditions to fulfill.
- Grace will never allow repayment.
- Grace disposes of man's participation absolutely and permanently.
- Grace never treats a person as he deserves, nor better than he deserves, but treats a person without regard to what he deserves.
- Grace is limitless, reaching the worst of us and is eternal never able to be withdrawn.
