

JANIE CHAROCOPOS

Janie is the founder, director and owner of J'Danse Studio (JDS) in Toronto. Janie began dancing at the age of 3. She has extensive training in Ballet, Pointe, Lyrical, Jazz, Tap, and Musical Theatre. Janie went on to graduate from Wexford School for the Performing Arts where she graduated with the Top Dance Award and Most Promising Dancer. She danced professionally for many years while obtaining her Honours degree from the University of Toronto.

Janie went on to teach and choreograph for various television and stage performances. Her award winning choreography has been featured at various shows across the country as well as the Wintercity Festival, and New Year's Eve Specials right here in Toronto.

Janie is an extremely sought after dance trainer. She specializes in both Dance Training and Audition Preparation. She is known for her exceptional attention to detail of technique. She is recognized for her energetic and positive re-enforcement with her students. She has trained many dancers from recreation, to professional. Many of her students have pursued professional careers at the National Ballet of Canada, as well as the Joffrey Ballet, Broadway Dance Alliance, and Tap City in New York City, including representation at Nationals in Orlando Florida.

jdansstudio@gmail.com
www.jdansstudio.com
www.facebook.com/jdansstudio@jdansstudio
<http://www.youtube.com/user/JdanseStudio>

