

Dr. Silbiger,

I cannot begin to express how grateful I am to have been able to hear you speak on the 12th. I was incredibly moved by your story. And as a Jew who has always heard of the Holocaust as a historical event, and not as a personal story, I ~~was~~ am very honored to have heard and seen you.

Coming to speak at Elon University last week. As the great-grandson of a Holocaust survivor I related his stories to yours, which made me feel an especially personal connection to your speech. I hope to share the stories of survivors like you and my great-grandfather to make sure that people never forget what happened.

Thank you,

Josh

Thank you for coming to Elon Dr. Silbiger! I of course have read a lot of accounts from Holocaust survivors, but hearing the words out loud feels deeper. I greatly appreciate you taking the time.

Hello Mr. Silbiger,

I really enjoyed hearing you speak, it was incredibly inspiring. I found it also inspiring that you underwent such a journey as such a young age. I really liked ~~that~~ that you knew the gravity of the situation at such a young age and you made the point that children can understand a lot more than what most people think, once you think you.

Warm regards,

Marshall

Dr. Silbiger, I want to say thank you for sharing your story with at Elon about your journey to escape Nazi persecution. You reminded me a lot of my own grandfather by the way you told your story and your finishing remarks about caring for people rescued with me. The best

Dear Lex,

Thank you so much for spending some of your time speaking to us. It is so important for stories like yours to be told, and I'm so grateful I got the chance to listen. I'm going into education, and I plan on sharing aspects of your story with my future students.

Also, just wanted to thank you out for being a fantastic speaker. Your ~~words~~ are engaging, thoughtful and fun to listen to. Please, keep doing what you are doing. It's important, impactful stuff.

I wish you nothing but the best in the future, and thank you again!

Sincerely,

Jackson King

Dear Mr. Silbiger,

Thank you so much for coming to Elon to share your story. It was extremely powerful and moving; truly a once in a lifetime experience. I appreciate you taking time out of your busy schedule to speak with us.

Dear Alexander Silbiger,
Thank you so much for coming to speak at E. It was an honor to hear your story and the immense bravery you exhibited at such a young age. You reminded me of how important it is to thank my parents for everything they do for me.

Thank you so much for coming to speak to us about your experiences and your personal perspective. I am so grateful that you've allowed us to have an opportunity like this to give real life context to the material that we learn in class.
