

Bringing wellness to those who help so many . . .

Soothing Touch To Go has been offered the opportunity to provide wellness treatments to Resident Service Coordinators at the 19th Annual New England Resident Service Coordinators Conference, May 3-5, 2017 at the Samoset Resort in Rockport, Maine, but we need YOUR help!

Resident Service Coordinators (RSCs) work with youth, families, elderly and disabled populations in affordable housing properties throughout New England (and beyond)! The challenges they face are time-consuming, difficult and often life-saving. This annual event offers RSCs an opportunity to network, gain information, relax, and bring new ideas and energy back to their residents.

NERSC and Resident Service Coordination

As the premiere source of training and professional development for Resident Service Coordinators in New England and beyond, NERSC represents over 400 RSC's and housing professionals. Our primary function is to honor our commitment to expanding and enhancing the profession of Service Coordination by convening for a 2.5 day professional conference every year, in early May. Through education and training, our Annual Conference provides an opportunity for Resident Service Coordinators and other property management professionals to come together, share valuable ideas and experience, and stay informed about the latest trends in serving residents in affordable housing. NERSC is a 501-C3 non-profit organization.
