Grace, Mercy and Forgiveness (Matt. 18:23-35) The _____ grace and mercy of God Life is a stewardship from God to be used for His g_____. Unbelievers use the life given by God for selfish purposes. S is always an offense against God. There is an incalculable and unpayable sin debt owed God. There are days when unbelievers face the truth that they will give account to God for their sinful life. Even with a faulty understanding of the enormity of the sin debt, God extends u forgiveness. Believers experience two kinds of forgiveness by God. The absurdity of _____ showing mercy and grace to others This treatment of one slave to another is unthinkable. It is the point of the parable to show that, considering God's grace to us, we should be extremely g______ to others. The self-deceptive nature of the flesh sometimes even overshadows self-interest. Jail will not help pay. The _____ of the chastening hand of God God has holy indignation whenever a Christian sins. God wants each believer to pay the d_____ of treating others with the same grace, mercy and forgiveness he received. God does not c_____ His children out of hatred but out of love. Conclusion: Who does God want you to forgive today?

Your notes here
*
	~~~