

Stannette E. Malosky, 79, of Caseville, died Friday, December 15, 2017 at home under the gracious care of A&D Home Health Care.

Stannette was born February 8, 1938 in Flint to the late Stanley and Emma (Melcer) Hagen. She graduated from Flint Central High School in 1956. She married Frank Malosky December 8, 1979 in Liberia, West Africa while serving in the US Peace Corps. Frank preceded her in death April 4, 2005.

She was passionate about singing with the Sweet Adelines and working as a realtor/broker with Scenic Reality. She enjoyed her home that she built with her late husband on Caseville Beach. She was devoted to and loved her Lord, Jesus.

Surviving are her daughter Lynnette Day of Pelston and son Mark Day of Caseville; grandchildren Adam, Aaron, Alicia, Heather, Chrystil, Christian and Chandra; 9 great-grandchildren; the father of her children Richard Day of Lake George; and many special friends. She was preceded in death by her daughter Renee and son Lyle.

A memorial reception will be at Noon, Saturday, January 6th at the Caseville Eagles Club. Champagne Funeral Chapel is handling the arrangements. Memorials may be made to Huron County Safeplace.
