

Leone "Lee" Mae Todd

Leone "Lee" Mae Todd, nee Minnick, 96, of Stuart, Fla. and Port Austin, passed away Monday, April 2, 2012, surrounded by family, near her Stuart, Fla. winter home.

She was born May 13, 1915.

Lee graduated Valedictorian of Port Austin High School Class of 1933. She was Kinde's Bean Queen in 1932. Lee was E.F. Hutton's first woman stockbroker in Ann Arbor.

Lee is survived by sister, Gernith I. Janos (Minnick) of Port Austin; sons, Michael (Barbara) Todd of Lake Worth, Fla., John (Kim) Todd of West Palm Beach, Fla., Patrick (Rose) Todd of Plymouth; daughter, Michele (Duane) Braidwood of Canton; 10 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren; niece, Carol (Minnick) Lee; and nephew, Tom Minnick of Port Austin.

Services will be conducted privately in Florida.

In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials in Lee's name to Treasure Coast Hospice, 1201 Southeast Indian Street, Stuart, Fla., or the American Cancer Society.