every age and condition have managed to satisfactorily imitate His example.

Belief in Jesus the Messiah-Christ, empowers with grace every child of God to overcome the ungodly spirits who direct this unscrupulous world. The Divine Son of God grants humans the power of His Holy Spirit to resist the vicious embrace of the Seven Capital Sins that universally corrupt the souls of men.

6. Jesus proved He came to us as the Messenger of God with a triple witness:

First, there was the Witness of Water.

At the Jordan River Jesus affirmed the teaching of the great Precursor Prophet, John the Baptist. Modeling that all men must humble themselves by repentance, Jesus the sinless Son of God, submitted to ritual Baptism. He demonstrated that humanity itself was in genetic rebellion against Yahweh-God and that no one was exempt from Personal Conversion.

Then, in His own ministry teaching, Jesus demanded that rebirthing repentance be the initial step for relational union with God. Repentance requires and includes: admission of guilt, correction of life, and restoration of the injustice done.

Jesus is the only Man who had no guilt, needed no correction, and never damaged anyone. Yet, as humanity's representative – calling Himself the "Son of Man (Adam)" – He took upon Himself the total sin of the world and its consequences. Since all mankind is in generational guilt, Father God demands repentance of every human, even those deemed holy. No one, whatever the dimension of his religious dedication, has ever given God total
