Key of D Major

Major Key Checklist: Level 1 Players

Big Idea 1: Chords	Roman Numerals	Noper	Kinda	Mostly	Yepper!	These chords are called "diatonic chords". Diatonic chords are simply the chords that make up each key.
D MAJOR	I
E minor	ii
F# minor	iii
G MAJOR	IV
A MAJOR	V
B minor	vi

Big Idea 2: Chord Progressions	Roman Numerals	Start with the slowest speed on these free jam tracks , and then work your way up to faster speeds!				All of these chord progressions are diatonic progressions, because they're made with only diatonic chords.
D-A-D	I-V-I
D-G-A	I-IV-V
D-A-G	I-V-IV
D-Bm-G-A	I-vi-IV-V
D-Bm-Em-A	I-vi-ii-V
D-Em-G-A	I-ii-IV-V
A-G-D	V-IV-I

Big Idea 3: Beginner Scales	When you play these scales over chord progressions, you will find times where a note sounds extra cool- likely when you're playing a note that is a part of the chord being played! #reasonstolearnchordnotes
D Major scale	Major scale notes are shown in bold font in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions

Key of A Major

Major Key Checklist: Level 1 Players

Big Idea 1: Chords	Roman Numerals	Noper	Kinda	Mostly	Yepper!	Once you start learning the diatonic chords in each key, you'll hear just how beautifully they all fit together!
A MAJOR	I
B minor	ii
C# minor	iii
D MAJOR	IV
E MAJOR	V
F# minor	vi

Big Idea 2: Chord Progressions	Roman Numerals	If these jam tracks are hard, and you have a capo, pretend you're in G Major and capo the 2nd fret!				As you play these progressions in each key, they'll likely start reminding you of songs you know because these progressions are SUPER COMMON!
A-E-A	I-V-I
A-D-E	I-IV-V
A-E-D	I-V-IV
A-F#m-D-E	I-vi-IV-V
A-F#m-Bm-E	I-vi-ii-V
A-Bm-D-E	I-ii-IV-V
E-D-A	V-IV-I

Big Idea 3: Beginner Scales	Once you can play a Major scale in order, then try mixing up the order of notes and see if you can figure out some basic melodies on your own. (Try this idea in all they keys that you can play Major scales in!)
A Major scale	Major scale notes are shown in bold font in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions
					A B C# D E F# G#
A Major pentatonic scale	Major pentatonic scale notes are underlined in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions

Key of E Major

Major Key Checklist: Level 1 Players

Big Idea 1: Chords	Roman Numerals	Noper	Kinda	Mostly	Yepper!	There is a seventh diatonic chord, called a "diminished chord". I don't include it in my books because it is so rarely played.
E MAJOR	I
F# minor	ii
G# minor	iii
A MAJOR	IV
B MAJOR	V
C# minor	vi

Big Idea 2: Chord Progressions	Roman Numerals	If these jam tracks are hard, and you have a capo, pretend you're in D Major and capo the 2nd fret!				When you've mastered these progression in several keys, figuring out songs "on the fly" becomes SO MUCH EASIER!
E-B-E	I-V-I
E-A-B	I-IV-V
E-B-A	I-V-IV
E-C#m-A-B	I-vi-IV-V
E-C#m-F#m-B	I-vi-ii-V
E-F#m-A-B	I-ii-IV-V
B-A-E	V-IV-I

Big Idea 3: Beginner Scales	When the Major scale notes become easy, if you're a bluegrass or country player, you're ready to start breaking rules by learning the flat-3 (b3) and flat-7 (b7) notes (the italicized notes in Fretboard Toolboxes)!
E Major scale	Major scale notes are shown in bold font in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions

Key of A minor

Minor Key Checklist: Level 1 Players

Big Idea 1: Chords	Roman Numerals	Noper	Kinda	Mostly	Yepper!	Each Major key has a "relative minor key" that uses the same chords and soloing notes, with a different root note. The "Relative Major Key" of the Key of A minor is C Major.
A minor	i
C MAJOR	III
D minor	iv
E minor	v
F MAJOR	VI
G MAJOR	VII

Big Idea 2: Chord Progressions	Roman Numerals	Play with these jam tracks and notice how much sadder minor key chord progressions sound!				Minor keys are all based around the "i" chord. The "v" chord is often played as a minor (v), OR a Major (V) chord.
Am-Em-Am	i-v-i
Am-G-Em	i-VII-v
Am-G-Am	i-VII-i
Am-E-Am	i-V-i
Am-Dm-E	i-iv-V
Am-G-F-E	i-VII-VI-V
Am-Dm-F-E	i-iv-VI-V

Big Idea 3: Beginner Scales	Minor scale notes are the exact same as their relative Major scales, they're just played in a different order. (With a different root note.) Notice how beautifully minor scales fit with minor key chord progressions!
A natural minor scale	Relative minor scale notes are shown in bold font in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions
					A B C D E F G
A minor pentatonic scale	Minor pentatonic scale notes are underlined in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions
					A C D E G

Key of E minor

Minor Key Checklist: Level 1 Players

Big Idea 1: Chords	Roman Numerals	Noper	Kinda	Mostly	Yepper!	The Key of G Major is the Relative Major Key of E minor. Compare these chords with those on the Key of G Major page and you'll see they're the same!
E minor	i
G MAJOR	III
A minor	iv
B minor	v
C MAJOR	VI
D MAJOR	VII

Big Idea 2: Chord Progressions	Roman Numerals	Tons of really cool songs are played in E minor. Try these jam tracks and make up your own sad song! :-)				Relative Major and minor keys are made of the same chords & notes, but by using a different chord/note as the root, they get VERY different sounds!
Em-Bm-Em	i-v-i
Em-D-Bm	i-VII-v
Em-D-Em	i-VII-i
Em-B-Em	i-V-i
Em-Am-B	i-iv-V
Em-D-C-B	i-VII-VI-V
Em-Am-C-B	i-iv-VI-V

Big Idea 3: Beginner Scales	Minor key songs with a Major "V" chord have an extra dark, haunting sound! A scale called the harmonic minor sounds beautiful over that chord! Look up the E harmonic minor scale and see what's different!
E natural minor scale	Relative minor scale notes are shown in bold font in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions
					E F# G A B C D
E minor pentatonic scale	Minor pentatonic scale notes are underlined in all Fretboard Toolbox Editions
					E G A B D
