Biography

Annabelle (Thrushman) Schubring was born February 5, 1935 to Barney and Lillian (Beggs) Thrushman. She entered into eternal rest September 29 2021. Ann was married to Edward (Barney) Schubring December 6 1952, and were happily married 57 years. Ann was a wonderful caretaker and home nurse for her husband until he passed away in 2009. She worked for many years for Port Hope School as a secretary and basketball coach. She was a very involved member at St. John's Lutheran church in Port Hope. Ann enjoyed and was well known for her beautiful gardening skills, and crotchet crafts. She could be found on the dance floor doing the polka with friends, quilting, or volunteering at the Grindstone Port Hope Sportsman's Club. Ann was an excellent cook and baker, and spent many hours making Christmas cookies with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.
