DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

Thank you for joining us to experience our production of She Loves Me! This show is a true delight. It is more than just a combination of beautiful music and a classic portrayal of the “enemies-to-lovers” trope. It strikes the perfect balance of comedic musical theatre escapism and real-world situations. Each of us can identify with feeling the need to put on a facade while yearning to be loved for who we are. Tonight, I invite you to give yourself permission to shed your exterior as you watch this show.

She Loves Me is about allowing others the opportunity to see and accept our authentic selves. I've felt that in action through this process, though I have had the privilege of working in theatre for over 12 years now, I feel as though I have developed an even deeper love of theatre than I had prior and that I have found my true place in theatre as director. I owe this journey to the countless number of talented people that I have been able to work with and learn from. I am grateful for them leading me to this moment.

I hope this production allows you an escape from the real world and moves you in unexpected ways. The cast and crew have put so much time and energy into this production and I have seen them learn and grow together. I am deeply proud of them and happy to have known them. I appreciate your attendance and I look forward to you receiving the gift that attending live theatre is. Enjoy the show, and “Fond fare-thee-well”.
