

Paul's Second Story

Distributed by Mu Nu Ministries

I had so many adventures, first with Barnabas and then with Silas.

I want to tell you some of them.

In one town we met this nasty man who was shouting at my new friend when I was telling him about Jesus.

When I told him off, the Holy Spirit took away his sight and he groped about,
very frightened.

In another town, because of my knowledge of the Law and the Prophets I could teach with authority to explain how they all point to Jesus.

As Jesus promised, many miracles happened when we taught about Him. A crippled man was healed, but the people watching thought we were gods and did not understand the work of the Holy Spirit in us.

We met a woman named Lydia who received our message with great joy.

Servants of the Most High God

A young girl followed us, shouting about us being servants of the Most High God.

This was not a good thing because a demon was speaking through her, so we ordered it to go. Her boss got angry, called the cops and we were put in gaol.

We sat there and praised God and suddenly there was an earthquake and the doors flew open and our chains fell off.

The gaoler was about to kill himself, but we told him we were all here. Then he took us to his home and asked how he could be saved from his sins.

At another town I walked around and saw many statues

and idols, and even one

to an unknown god.

To an unknown god

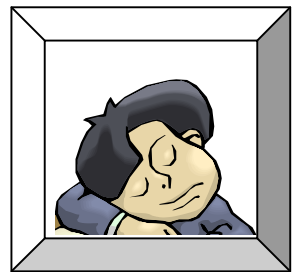

I took this chance to talk about Jesus who is LORD of lords and wants everyone to seek Him, because then He will show Himself to each person if they do. Some people wanted to hear more and others turned up their noses.

One night I preached too long and a young man went to sleep and fell out of the window, but God did a miracle and he lived.

With all these wonderful things happening I also had many enemies, always trying to get me into trouble. Even some who helped me had problems with the people who were in charge of the towns.

Some who followed me at first gave up because of the troubles. Some gave up because they thought they were better than me.

But serving the Lord Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit is still the best thing in all the world.

His love

helps us continue with the vision He gave us from the first.

I look forward to hearing Him say,

Well done, good and faithful son
