HOME FROM THE WARS—Alma De Luce, wife of Daniel De Luce, ace Associated Press foreign correspondent, who is on her way home to Los Angeles. Wide World photo

Alma De Luce Coming Home After Life on Many Fronts

Los Angeles Girl, Who Would Rather Be With Reporter-Mate in Burma, Enjoyed Her Experiences

Pretty Alma DeLuce, a Los Angeles girl, is on her way home from the war, not at all happy about giving up the hazards of life as a war correspondent's wife for the safety and sunshine of Southern California.

She explained in New York the other day that she would much rather be near her husband.

news. Came the chance for a foreign assignment and their adventures began.

Alma, among other chores, handled their personal correspondence. Letters from her thrilled their friends here.

She's coming home soon, after seeing friends in New York and Washington, to stay with her mother, Mrs. George Gillingham, 128 E. Ave. 30.
