

Mousseau, Raymond J.

Raymond J. Mousseau, 74, of Deckerville and Tucson, Arizona, passed away Sunday, July 4, 2004, at his home on the beautiful shores of Lake Huron with his family at his side. Born in Detroit on August 7, 1929, he was the son of the late Raymond J. and Beatrice (Ready) Mousseau. He was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corp serving during World War II and the Korean Conflict. Ray was a retired CEO of the Chicago Pneumatic Company retiring in 1990. He enjoyed the out of doors and was an avid hunter of deer, ducks, and pheasants. He was a member of the National Rifle Association, Ducks Unlimited, Pheasants Forever, the American Legion Post 197 of Harbor Beach and the Harbor Beach Rotary Club. He also enjoyed playing cards, especially euchre and pinochle. Ray was also a history buff of the Civil War and World War II events. Ray was united in marriage to Susie Stumpf on July 23, 1949 in Roseville. Surviving are his wife, Susie Mousseau, of Deckerville; his children, R. Bryon Mousseau, of Clinton Township, Renee` S. Barnes and her husband, Jame, of Harrison Township, Deborah L. Ferns and her husband, Gary, of Tucson, Arizona, and Tami A. Guerra, of Auburn Hills; ten grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; sister, Marianne Mousseau, of Fort Gratiot. A funeral mass will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 6, 2004, on the shores of Lake Huron in front of Ray's home at 4118 N. Lakeshore Drive (M-25), Deckerville. Fr. Tom Esper will officiate. Ramsey Funeral Home, Harbor Beach, is handling arrangements.