Biography

Arlene was born in Bay City, on February 9, 1946 to Arnold John Nimtz and Ruth Helen (Weller) Nimtz. Arlene graduated from Sebewaing High School in 1964. She worked at the Blue Line Dairy where she met the love of her life, LeRoy. She married LeRoy Schweitzer on February 5, 1966 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sebewaing. Arlene was the president of the Dick Clark Fan Club and when she received a dime from a fan, she would mail them his picture. She loved antiquing and attending and working estate sales. She was an antique dealer, with a booth at Bay Antique Center for 32 ½ years. Arlene was also known as the Coupon Queen and was even featured on TV5 in the "Someone you should know" segment for her great couponing. She retired from Michigan Sugar Company in Sebewaing after 26 years as a Sample Carrier and then Lab work.
