

Britt, Kenneth

Kenneth E. Britt, 75, of Bad Axe, passed away on Wednesday, Feb. 26, 2003, at Kindred Hospital in Lincoln Park following an extended illness. He was born on Nov. 7, 1927 in Sebewaing, son of the late Earl and Margaret (Binder) Britt. He married Harriet A. Sageman on Aug. 21, 1948 in the parsonage of the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church. He served in the U.S. Army in World War II and was an avid sportsman. Kenneth is survived by his wife, Harriet Britt of Bad Axe; two sons, Tom Britt and his wife, Sally, of Bad Axe, Perry Earl Britt and his wife, Karen, of Bad Axe; one daughter, Judy Rinnert and her husband, Mike, of Elkton; two sisters, Shirley Hanson and her husband, James, of Bad Axe, Carol Ann O'Brien of Sellersburg, Ind.; eight grandchildren, Rob Dhont and his friend, Mary, of Ypsilanti, Jeff Dhont and his friend, Teresa Baur, of Bad Axe, Jeremy Britt and his friend, Michelle Blasky, of Bad Axe, Aaron Britt of Greenwood Township, Heidi Britt and her friend, Scott Bannick, of Bad Axe, Patrick Britt of Charlevoix, twins Olivia and Spencer Britt of Bad Axe; one great-grandson, Zachary Britt of Bad Axe; and several nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by one sister, Betty Britt; two stepbrothers, Harold and LaVern Britt; stepsister, Etta Sturm; and one granddaughter, Bailey Lynn Britt. There will be no visitation or service. Interment will be in Grant Township Cemetery. Arrangements are being conducted by the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe.