TREY GOWDY

THE BLOWOUT RAISES FUNDS FOR THE TEXAS ENERGY MUSEUM'S EXHIBITIONS AND EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS FOCUSING ON THE HISTORY AND SCIENCE OF TEXAS OIL.

Trey Gowdy was born in Greenville, South Carolina. He graduated Baylor University in 1986 and the University of South Carolina School of Law in 1989.

As a federal prosecutor from 1994-2000, Trey prosecuted the full range of federal crimes including narcotics trafficking, bank robbery, kidnapping, and the murder of a federal witness. He was awarded the Postal Inspector's Award for the successful prosecution of J. Mark Allen, one of "America's Most Wanted" suspects.

In 2000, as the 7th Circuit Solicitor, Trey started a Violence Against Women Task Force and a Worthless Check Program; he implemented a Drug Mother Protocol designed to assist expectant mothers break the cycle of addiction. He has been recognized statewide for his commitment to victim's rights and drunken driving enforcement and nationally for excellence in death penalty prosecutions.

From 2010 to 2018, Trey represented the 4th Congressional District. While in Congress, he served on the Judiciary Committee, Oversight and Government Reform Committee, Intelligence Committee, Education and the Workforce Committee and Ethics Committee. He chaired a Select Committee on the events occurring in Libya in September 2012.

Currently, he practices law in South Carolina, teaches classes with his close friend Senator Tim Scott, and speaks on legal issues he considers important to our country.
