

McGee, Diana G.

Diana G. McGee, 61, of Elkton and owner of the Lunch Bucket, died Thursday morning, October 16, at Covenant Cooper, Saginaw from a ruptured brain aneurysm.

She was born May 11, 1947 in Pigeon to Alma (Fluegge) Stahl and the late James Stahl, and grew up in Bay Port. She was a 1965 graduate of Laker High School and attended college two years. On December 14, 1968, she was united in marriage to Thomas M. McGee in Pigeon. He preceded her in death on May 3, 2002.

Her working career began at the Bay Port State Bank as a teller. She then became a secretary at Haley Oil in Elkton from 1977 to 1986, when she purchased the Lunch Bucket Restaurant in Elkton.

She was a member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Elkton. Diana loved to spend time with her three grandchildren.

Surviving are her two sons, Thomas McGee and his wife, Jennifer of Essexville and Patrick McGee and his special friend, Robin of Orlando, FL; three grandchildren, Matthew, Brady and Jaylee McGee; her mother, Alma Stahl of Bay Port; her brother, James (Sharon) Stahl of Caseville and two sisters, Patricia (Eugene) Sluke of Sand Point and Cathy (Chuck) Esch of Elkton; several aunts and uncles, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted 11 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 18, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Elkton. Rev. Rodney Schwab will officiate with burial in St. John Lutheran Cemetery, Berne.

Friends may call from 3 to 8 p.m. Friday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton and after 10 a.m. at the church Saturday.

Memorials may be directed to the family discretionary fund.

Words of condolence may be shared at www.cfcElkton.com.