Mission Statement:

The Hispanic Student Dental Association (HSDA) Chapter at the Columbia University College of Dental Medicine (CUCDM) aims to create a unified voice for oral health students and faculty and seeks to promote and advance the oral health issues of the Hispanic community in New York.

Requirements of Membership:

Membership dues are $30, which includes the mandatory $15 national organization dues. Any pre-doctoral or postgraduate student enrolled in good standing at the Columbia University College of Dental Medicine. To maintain an active status, members must have paid dues and have attended at least two events in the academic year.

Meetings and Procedures:

The fall General Body Meeting will dive into the details of how HSDA utilizes revenue generated from dues. HSDA will also hold 2 Lunch&Learns focused on clinically-relevant Spanish per semester, several health fairs throughout the year, and national conference opportunities.
