

MARY A. LANGLEY McNUTT

1897 - 1993

Mary A. Langley McNutt, 96 of Caseville, passed away Tuesday, June 29 at Tender Care Nursing Center, Cass City.

She was born May 19, 1897 in Lake Township, daughter of the late Napoleon and Maryellen (Hagel) Cobb.

She was united in marriage to Vern Langley in May, 1919 in Caseville. He preceded her in death in February, 1965. On Oct. 6, 1969 she married Orvie J. McNutt in Caseville. He preceded her in death on March 3, 1977.

Mrs. McNutt lived in the Caseville Area all of her life, frequently telling stories about the Indians that lived in the area during her youth. She was a former columnist for the Detroit Free Press and the Bay City Times, using the pen name "Puss Cahoots." She also published several poems and two books, "Chippewa Trails and Indian Tales" and "The History of Caseville."

She was a member of the Caseville United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women.

Surviving are two sons, Fred (Leona) Langley of Caseville and Edward Langley of Mt. Pleasant; her daughter, Fern (Harvey) McCready of Colwood;