Description: The New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety is hosting three training sessions for the Numetric Crash Query Application

The training will provide a walkthrough of Numetric and its suite applications. During the 3-hour window, attendees will learn about the Crash Query and Network Screening Applications with an overview of their features. Users will learn how to filter for crash criteria, customize metrics and to create summarization, comparison, and over-representation reports. The class will walk through specific examples on how to utilize crash data for program evaluation and hot-spot identification.

This is an interactive class and active participation is encouraged. The class is limited to 20 persons on a first-come-first-serve basis.
