County Clerk, Melissa Meek advised that the roof project would not be started until after the Memorial Day Service that will be held on the Courthouse lawn. She also reported that water was coming in the floor of the Assessor's Office. Lawns Unlimited whom has been purchased by Archer Lawn out of St Joe had looked at it last year to see what could be done to divert the water away from the building. Archer has since submitted a bid of approximately $8,000 to get the water away from the NE and NW side of the building. Nothing will be done at this time until the new roof is installed to see if that doesn't rectify the issues with the water coming in the building. Thompson Plumbing will be called to have them run their camera to see where the water is going.

Bids were mailed and put in the paper for work to be done at Sunset Home. Those bids will be opened on May 28th.

Pattern Energy has been contacted concerning the ADLS and the County will be notified by mail their answer concerning the lighting.
