BHC PACKS TUESDAY'S WISDOM

Day Two (Genesis 1:9-10)

Discovering the Earth at the Bottom of a Primordial Ocean

Probably every Bible reader is familiar with the story of the creation of the Earth in Genesis 1. Interesting, their story and the story the readers of the ancient Hebrew text knew are very different. Check it out!

Connect With The Bible's Wisdom of the Beginnings Every Day!

The Bible's Wisdom of the Beginnings is about the beginnings of many things – and some things that have no beginnings.

- Saturday Night's Wisdom revealed three things for which no beginnings are revealed – elohiyim, darkness, and deep waters.
- In the Hebrew text the word translated “create” means “to change something that exists.” Elohiym is introduced with the only two things available for him to change to create “Heaven and Earth.”
- Sunday's Wisdom revealed that elohiyim decided to change darkness first and he did it by simply speaking and light came into existence.
- Monday's Wisdom revealed that elohiyim decided to change the deep waters next. He did it making the RAQIYA – a solid dome-like structure beneath the surface of the deep waters.
- Tuesday's Wisdom reveals that the next thing elohiyim decided to change was the waters beneath the RAQIYA. This time elohiyim speaks and the waters under the solid dome-like structure “gather together in one place.” The Hebrew text calls it a “dry thing” and elohiyim named it “Earth.”

I never heard that story in Sunday School, church or at a synagogue. Have you?
