B & B AWNINGS

ROD CANOPIES

Enterprise Tarpaulin rod canopies are exceptionally durable for a wide array of products. All our canopies are designed for high load architectural applications and installations. Our rod canopies serve multi-purpose features both functional and cosmetic purposes. We strive to meet and exceed your expectations. We offer a diverse variety of colors & finishes including durable power coated finishes.

Rod canopies are used as decorative sun & rain protection over windows and colors. Our detailed designs, review by our experienced engineer, are built to meet or exceed wind load requirements, seismic & snow load, depending on the location of your product installation.
