

Turner, Frank

Frank A. Turner, 91, of Lake City, Fla. and summer resident of Port Hope passed away on May 8, 2000, in Lake City following a long illness. He was born on July 10, 1909, in Volcun the son of the late Omer and Verbina (Collins) Turner. He and Edith Frazer were married on Sept. 26, 1940, in New York. She preceded him in death on Feb. 28, 1979. They were visitors to the Deitikers Cabins Resort in Port Hope for more than 40 years. He was an employee of Wonder Bread Co. in Detroit, retiring in 1974. He was a veteran of World War II. He served in the U.S. Army as a medic on a hospital ship in England, Africa and Germany. He was a member of the V.F.W. and American Legion in Melbourne, Fla. Frank is survived by a daughter, Marlene Weaver and her husband, Donald, of Fairview; four grandsons, Allen Turner of Arizona, Frank Turner of West Virginia, Lawrence Turner of California, Donald Weaver Jr. of Cummings; five great-grandsons; sister, Charlotte Snyder of California. A graveside service will be conducted at noon on Sunday, Sept. 17, 2000, in the Rock Falls Cemetery. The Rev. Theresa Cutler will officiate.