

Judith Faye "Judy" Gaeth, 69 of Pigeon, passed away Wednesday, September 25, 2013 at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe.

Born in Pigeon on December 26, 1943, she was the daughter of the late Vern and Irene M. (Haist) Thick and was a 1962 graduate of Laker High School. She married John "Jack" Gaeth in Pigeon.

Judy loved working as a courier as well as numerous other jobs at the Co-op Elevator in Pigeon and enjoyed all the dear friends she had there.

Family was special to her, and she was so proud of her son and daughter-in-law as well as her grandchildren, Cole, Charlie, and Owen. Cole and Judy were big fans of the Detroit Tigers. She would cut out newspaper articles about Cabrera and Verlander and send them to him. She loved spending time babysitting for Charlie and Owen.

Judy liked going to the farm where she enjoyed watching the crop harvests-especially the beet harvest. She also loved going to the cottage and sitting by the water which was so peaceful to her.

Judy loved making animal sugar cookies for her family and friends, and always decorated them for each holiday occasion. At family get-togethers, Judy always took something special, such as strawberry dessert, chocolate dump cake or stuffed mushrooms. Judy also enjoyed canning pickles. She was a member of Salem United Methodist Church in Pigeon.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Jason and Laura Gaeth of Cass City; grandsons, Cole, Charlie, and Owen; her sister, Marilyn Elenbaum of Pigeon; John "Jack" Gaeth; nephew, Randy (TJ) Elenbaum; nieces Cathy (Brent) Stoeckle and Shelley Elenbaum; several great nieces and nephews; and family friend, Tammy Elenbaum.

The Funeral Service will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 28, 2013 at Salem United Methodist Church, with Rev. David Stewart, pastor, and retired pastor Alger T. Lewis officiating. Burial will follow at Caseville Township Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Pigeon District Library or Mid-Michigan Hospital.
