Miss Richards recommends.....

Pat is a bat who just wants to be special. He decides he wants to be a superhero but all the other bats laugh at him, until he proves himself...! The children love this book and the superhero twist. It's also full of facts about bats!

Nibbles is chomping, munching and nibbling his way through your favourite fairy tales! The quicker you read this, the sooner you'll catch him. This is a funny story which the children love to share and get involved with.

Poor old dragon! No one wants him in their story and he is tired of being the bad guy! This is a story about a determined dragon who just wants to be a hero for a change. The children love hearing how the dragon succeeds even when things get tough.
