SECTION IV – MARKET FEES:

Initial: _____

2. For the Farmers Markets where a flat fee is charged, you must pay such fee in advance for your space. You must also book and pay all fees on a week-to-week or month-to-month basis, as applicable. All fees paid are non-refundable and will not be returned if you do not attend a market. Fees paid may not be applied to future weeks. Other fees may be charged such as cleaning fees, building management fees, etc., and must be paid in advance.

Initial: _____

3. In all markets, you will be charged a no-show fee if you fail to attend when you are scheduled. Calling the office mid-week to say you are not coming does not absolve you of the no-show fee. The payment must be received at our office before the next market day, not at the next market. These no-show fees are as follows:

- a. Farmers pay a $25 fee.
- b. Food vendors pay their normal space fee for the day.
- c. Crafters forfeit their advance payment and must pay in advance for the next market they wish to schedule.

Initial: _____

BUSINESS NAME:	Date:

4. In markets where fees are paid week-to-week, you must pre-pay at the close of each market for the next week if you intend to participate that week. If you do not pay, we will assume you are not attending, and the space may be rented to someone else at our sole discretion. There is a waiting list for most of our markets, so the space will be filled as soon as we note the no-payment.

Initial _____

5. In markets where fees are paid month-to-month, you must pre-pay at the close of each market for the next month if you intend to participate that month. If you do not pay, we will assume you are not attending, and the space may be rented to someone else at our sole discretion. There is a waiting list for most of our markets, so the space will be filled as soon as we note the no-payment.

Initial: _____

6. Any farmer/vendor paying by a check that is returned by the bank for insufficient funds shall pay a $12 processing fee to Raw Inspiration. After we receive two insufficient fund checks, you will thereafter be required to pay by cashier's check, money order, cash or credit card.

Initial: _____

7. After a no-payment or bounced check, you will not be permitted back into the market until you pre-pay. The fee must be received at our office prior to the market, not at the market. Once we receive payment, if there is available space, you will be assigned a space that week, but we cannot guarantee it will be the same space you previously had. If the market is full, you will be so informed and will be put on a waiting list for that market.

Initial: _____

8. Once you pre-pay to reserve a space, attendance is expected. There will be no roll-overs or cancellations or refunds of any fees. If you cannot attend the market for any reason, the payment will not be refunded.

Initial: _____

9. All farmers/vendors are subject to an audit of their daily gross sales by the market manager or its designee to verify the accuracy of the reported sales in any given week or month, as applicable. All farmers/vendors shall keep and maintain all appropriate books and records necessary for verification that the proper payments of fees have been paid. Upon 48 hours' notice to the farmer/vendor, such farmer/vendor shall give the market manager or its designee full access, during normal business hours, to such farmer/vendor' books and records for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of the reported gross sales and the amounts paid as fees. Any underpayment found will be remedied by the farmer/vendor within five (5) days of such audit and shall be subject to a fine of up to ten percent (10%) of the amount of underpayment.

(#9 CONTINUED) The market manager shall also have the right, in its sole and absolute judgment, to dismiss any farmer/vendor from the market if such farmer/vendor is found to have intentionally misreported its gross sales.

BUSINESS NAME:	Date:

Initial: _____

For certified farmers only:

10. Certified Farmers agree to pay 60 cents for the California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA) fund for each certificate at each market weekly. This fee will be collected at the close of every market or paid in the monthly or weekly pre-payments, as applicable. The market will total these payments each quarter and remit the payments to the CDFA.

Farmers' Market Anti-Harassment Policy and Complaint Procedure

We strive to create and maintain an environment within the Farmers Markets' in which people are treated with dignity, decency and respect. The environment of the Farmers Market should be characterized by mutual trust and the absence of intimidation, oppression and exploitation. We will not tolerate unlawful discrimination or harassment of any kind. Through enforcement of this policy and by education of our vendors, we will seek to prevent, correct and discipline behavior that violates this policy.

All vendors, regardless of their positions, are covered by and are expected to comply with this policy and to take appropriate measures to ensure that prohibited conduct does not occur. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any vendor who violates this policy. Based on the seriousness of the offense, disciplinary action may include verbal or written reprimand, suspension, or termination from participating in our Farmers Markets' either for a period of time or indefinitely.

While we know that the vendors are not employees of the Farmers Market, we do want the Farmers' Market to be a place for each vendor to feel safe while they are in the market. The market is your working environment and should be maintained as a professional environment with one another. We ask that owners please share this with their employees who attend our Farmers' Markets.

Harassment

We prohibit harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment, and will take appropriate action in response to complaints or knowledge of violations of this policy. For purposes of this policy, harassment is any verbal or physical conduct designed to threaten, intimidate or coerce a fellow vendor, co-worker, customer or any person working for or on behalf of our company or within the market as a vendor.

The following examples of harassment are intended to be guidelines and are not exclusive when determining whether there has been a violation of this policy:

- Verbal harassment includes comments that are offensive or unwelcome regarding a person's national origin, race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, body, disability or appearance, including epithets, slurs and negative stereotyping.
- Nonverbal harassment includes distribution, display or discussion of any written or graphic material that ridicules, denigrates, insults, belittles or shows hostility, aversion or disrespect toward an individual or group because of national origin, race, color, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, pregnancy, appearance, disability, sexual identity, marital status or other protected status.

Sexual harassment

Sexual harassment is a form of unlawful employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and is prohibited under our anti-harassment policy. According to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), sexual harassment is defined as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature ... when ... or such conduct has the purpose or effect of ... creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment."

Sexual harassment may take different forms. The following examples of sexual harassment are intended to be guidelines and are not exclusive when determining whether there has been a violation of this policy:

- Verbal sexual harassment includes innuendoes, suggestive comments, jokes of a sexual nature, sexual propositions, lewd remarks and threats; requests for any type of sexual favor (this includes repeated, unwelcome requests for dates); and verbal abuse or "kidding" that is oriented toward a prohibitive form of harassment, including that which is sexual in nature and unwelcome.

BUSINESS NAME:	Date:

- Nonverbal sexual harassment includes the distribution, display or discussion of any written or graphic material, including calendars, posters and cartoons that are sexually suggestive or show hostility toward an individual or group because of sex; suggestive or insulting sounds; leering; staring; whistling; obscene gestures; content in letters, notes, facsimiles, e-mails, photos, text messages, tweets and Internet postings; or other forms of communication that are sexual in nature and offensive.
- Physical sexual harassment includes unwelcome, unwanted physical contact, including touching, tickling, pinching, patting, brushing up against, hugging, cornering, kissing, fondling, and forced sexual intercourse or assault.

Courteous, mutually respectful, pleasant, noncoercive interactions between vendors that are appropriate in the Farmers Market and acceptable to and welcomed by both parties are not considered to be harassment, including sexual harassment.

Retaliation

No hardship, loss, benefit or penalty may be imposed on a vendor in response to:

- Notifying or responding to a bona fide complaint of discrimination or harassment.
- Appearing as a witness in the investigation of a complaint.
- Serving as an investigator of a complaint.

Lodging a bona fide complaint will in no way be used against the vendor or have an adverse impact on the individual's status in the market. However, filing groundless or malicious complaints is an abuse of this policy and will be treated as a violation.

Any person who is found to have violated this aspect of the policy will be subject to discipline up to and including termination of their markets they attend with us.

Confidentiality

All complaints and investigations are treated confidentially to the extent possible, and information is disclosed strictly on a need-to-know basis. The identity of the complainant is usually revealed to the parties involved during the investigation, and the Director will take adequate steps to ensure that the complainant is protected from retaliation during and after the investigation. All information pertaining to a complaint or investigation under this policy will be maintained in secure files within the office.

Complaint procedure

We have established the following procedure for lodging a complaint of harassment, discrimination or retaliation. The company will treat all aspects of the procedure confidentially to the extent reasonably possible.

1. Complaints should be submitted as soon as possible after an incident has occurred, preferably in writing. The Director may assist the complainant in completing a written statement or, in the event a vendor refuses to provide information in writing, the Director will dictate the verbal complaint.
2. Upon receiving a complaint or being advised by a supervisor or manager that violation of this policy may be occurring, the Director will notify senior management and review the complaint with the company's legal counsel.
3. The Director will initiate an investigation to determine whether there is a reasonable basis for believing that the alleged violation of this policy occurred.

BUSINESS NAME:	Date:

- 4. If necessary, the complainant and the respondent will be separated during the course of the investigation, either through being moved further away from one another at the market or if need be one of the parties may be assigned to another market on the same day.
- 5. During the investigation, the Director, will interview the complainant, the respondent and any witnesses to determine whether the alleged conduct occurred.
- 6. Upon conclusion of an investigation, the Director or other person conducting the investigation will submit a written report of his or her findings to the company. If it is determined that a violation of this policy has occurred, the Director will recommend appropriate disciplinary action. The appropriate action will depend on the following factors:

- a) the severity, frequency and pervasiveness of the conduct;
- b) prior complaints made by the complainant;
- c) prior complaints made against the respondent; and
- d) the quality of the evidence (e.g., firsthand knowledge, credible corroboration).

If the investigation is inconclusive or if it is determined that there has been no violation of policy, but potentially problematic conduct may have occurred, the Director may recommend appropriate preventive action.

- 7. Once a final decision is made by any senior management and/or Director will speak with the complainant and the respondent separately and notify them of the findings of the investigation. If disciplinary action is to be taken, the respondent will be informed of the nature of the discipline and how it will be executed.

Sharing This Policy with your Employees

We ask that you take the time to share this policy with your employees before they work for you in one of our markets. While I am sure you have your own polices in place for workplace harassment, this policy covers conduct with other vendors and our management in the market. Thank you.
