

Rakowski, John

John Rakowski, 93, of Port Austin, passed away peacefully in Monroe on Saturday, June 3, 2006, surrounded by his loving family. He retired as detective sergeant from the Detroit Police Department. He later was employed as security chief for Hudson's, Northland, and the German Consulate in Detroit. He and his late wife, Virginia, owned and operated the Harbor House Restaurant in Port Austin for many years. He was an avid golfer and gardener. He doted on his family and blessed us with cherished memories and lessons of life and love. He is sadly missed by daughter, Susan (Dennis); grandchildren, Jeffrey (Constance) Huff, Michael (Linda) Huff and Charlotte Huff; great-grandchildren, Ryan, Rachel and Dana Huff. He was preceded in death by Virginia, dear wife for 55 years. A private memorial service will be conducted in Port Austin at a later date.
