Biography

Ilene DeChane, age 101, of Bad Axe, passed away on Thursday, June 19, 2025 at her home, surrounded by her family. Ilene was born on May 5, 1924 in Elkton, MI, daughter of the late Howard and Grace (Morley) Bannick. She married Gerald Lee DeChane, Sr. on December 15, 1941. He preceded her in death on August 25, 2011. Ilene was beloved by everyone who knew her for her warmth, kindness, and the twinkle in her eyes. She gave the best hugs and was a most empathetic, nonjudgmental listener. People all over the county remember her pleasant greetings when they shopped at the A&P grocery store, where she worked for 15 years. Later, she and Jerry designed beautiful kitchens together at the business they started, DeChane Cabinet Shop. She loved spending time with family and friends at their little green cottage on the lake, riding her bicycle, singing with her music groups and participating in events at her church, St. Paul's Episcopal. Ilene is perhaps best known, though, for her delicious fruit cakes, pecan pies, bread and cinnamon rolls and pickles!
