

Under The Rock

Rachael Martin 4,24,2020

I've have been asked, in the past, if I live under a rock. At first, I took offense to this question but here I sit years later and I'm actually kind of happy that I choose to live a life w/o much t.v. or wide spread social media outlets. Reflecting on this question more and more, I went to scriptures because what instantly came to me was hiding in the cleft of The Rock – Our Father.

I know there are some things that I should probably know as a parent and as a Christian, but I feel like if God wants me to know them, He will reveal them to me in His timing – in His way. We are willing to learn and remain teachable as we possibly can. I also know that I have a husband who in being my help-mate – God speaks to him just as much and as a team, we will be ok not being a part of the majority.

God – Our Rock - if I am going to hide away, Who best to hide away with? He knows my heart, my ups and downs and my thoughts. His hand on my life – I feel is continuing to lead me and nudge me to and from as necessary.

The Rock of Ages – well He didn't get His name by blending in with the crowds. He is God and God alone – nothing and no one else compares.

I just want to share some scriptures below to encourage and uplift you all as we trust in Him and abide in His shadow. Under the Rock of the Almighty – a very, very, good, good, place to be indeed!

Psalm 62:1-2 - God, the one and only— I'll wait as long as he says. Everything I need comes from him, so why not? He's solid rock under my feet, breathing room for my soul, An impregnable castle: I'm set for life.

Isaiah 26:4 - Trust ye in Jehovah for ever; for in Jehovah, even Jehovah, is an everlasting rock.

1 Corinthians 10:4 - and did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ.
