NEW KELLEYS ISLAND COOKBOOK; By June 1, the New Kelleys Island Cookbook, compiled by Bea Matso and sponsored by the Association should be available. The tentative price is $8.00, postpaid. Remembering how quickly the supply of the original cookbook ran out, members are urged to put in their orders as soon as possible.

Meanwhile an attempt is being made to reprint the original cookbook in order to meet the demand for that item. As soon as this can be worked out, notice will be given.

MEMORIAL GIFTS; One of the most fitting ways to remember friends and loved ones is to present memorial gifts to the Association. Since the publication of the Newsletter last November, the following donations to the Memorial Fund have been received;

In memory of Harold Dwelle from Mary Edith Scott.

ANNUAL ASSOCIATION AUCTION; One of the most interesting events associated with the annual Butterfly Festival is the auction sponsored by the Association. Items contributed by members and friends are auctioned off, the proceeds from which go to the general fund of the Kelleys Island Historical Association. Please, as you look over your household goods, objects of art, etc., pick out items for which you no longer have a use and donate them to the Association for the Auction. It is not too soon to be thinking about your contribution to this event.

Items which you wish to donate should be either dropped off at the Old Stone Church or arrangements made through Florence McKillip to have them picked up.

ITEMS FOR SALE BY THE ASSOCIATION; Your attention is directed to the fact that there are only a few copies of the Association's reprint of Norman Hills' History of Kelley's Island. Copies are $9.00 each, postpaid. Also available are the Kelleys Island Historical Association Memorial Plates (numbered series) for $16.00 each, postpaid. Checks should be made out to the Kelleys Island Historical Association, Kelleys Island, Ohio, 43438.
