ID THEFT, FINANCIAL FRAUD & SCAM REMINDER TIP SHEET

CRITICAL STEPS TO AVOIDING SCAMS

- 1) DO NOT answer the phone unless you recognize the number or name.
- 2) DO NOT answer the door unless you know who it is.
- 3) DO NOT let anyone, for any reason, intimidate, scare or shame you into providing personal or financial information or payments or coerce you into engaging in questionable activities. (moving money, trans-shipping goods, etc.)
- 4) DO NOT open e-mails from unknown senders and if you do, DO NOT click on any links inside them; including in text messages - doing so can install all kinds of malware on your computer or cell phone. Think before you click!
- 5) DO NOT give anyone remote access to your computer unless you initiate contact and you are absolutely certain they are a legitimate computer repair service and not a scam. Pop-up warnings for virus infection/tech support on your computer are generally scams. Google search their name and or toll-free number for scam reports.

GENERAL WARNING SIGNS OF A SCAM

These usually involve some kind of verbal ruse over the phone from someone you do not know, however, it may be someone you do know or think you know, such as in cases of a romance-related or tie-in scams like the granny scam.

- 1) Person threatens to take some sort of immediate financial or legal action against you unless you provide payment immediately.
- 2) Person urges or demands that you take some kind of action immediately that will benefit them or an organization.
- 3) Person urges or demands that you provide a credit card number or checking account number to pay a late bill or fine.
- 4) Person claims they are with a local, federal or state agency (IRS, FBI, other law enforcement) or utility company, etc., and demands that you take some kind of action (usually make a payment with a credit card, gift card or checking account number and/or provide some other kind of personal or financial information) under threat of immediate punitive action against you, including warrants for your arrest.
- 5) Person says they are coming to your house to deliver some kind of prize/lottery/sweepstakes winnings or other gift(s). The other sign here is that they say they will need a small fee, paid in the form of a gift card (Green Dot, iTunes, etc.) to pay taxes, register your winnings with the FDIC, IRS, etc. If you legitimately win, the only paperwork you should be asked to fill out is a form the prize presenters are required to file with the IRS and state tax commission. You never have to pay a fee for winning a prize, only taxes and only to the respective governmental agency directly. Common with Publishers Clearing House (PCH) prize scams.
- 6) Any type of activity that involves you paying any kind of fee, most often with a gift card, Green Dot card, iTunes card, Vanilla Visa, etc.
- 7) Person asks you to pick up and re-ship any type of package, goods, etc., to a third party or asks you to use Western Union, etc., to forward money (ACH transfers, etc.) to a third party. Common in romance scams.

REMEMBER THESE WORDS OF WISDOM

- 1) If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is.
- 2) There is no free lunch.

- 3) If you didn't enter the contest, you can't win. (Foreign lotteries are illegal in U.S.)
- 4) When in doubt, check it out! (Google search for scam-related reports.)
- 5) Think before you click!
