

Bricks & Stones For the Allen H. Stewart Lions Camp

Located on Casper Mountain, the Allen H. Stewart Lions Camp is the signature project of the Wyoming Lions. In addition to Lions and Leos Clubs and individuals financially supporting the maintenance of and schooling at the camp, Non-Lion entities also support the camp. Individual and corporate “giving” have aided the camp in many ways.

The summer camp offers groups of all ages the opportunity to learn to live productive lives with their vision handicaps. Their experiences at the camp provide a memorable and meaningful experience for all attendees. Wyoming Lions involvement truly exemplifies the spirit of Helen Keller's challenge to become “Knights of the Blind.”

The Camp is owned by the Lions of Wyoming Foundation and administered by a Board of Directors consisting Lions Club members from around Wyoming.

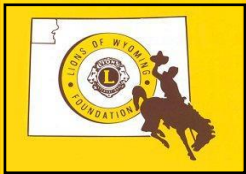

Groups other than Lions may rent camp facilities during the summer season. This helps provide funds for maintenance costs and improvements. Lions are constantly seeking ways to improve services to the visually impaired who attend the camp.

Bricks and Stones for the Allen H. Stewart Lions Camp offer every Lion and Leo member, Lions Clubs, other individuals or corporations the unique opportunity to make a commitment to assure the highest level of service for those attending “our Lions Camp.”
