Productions FAQ

Saturday Kids Productions

1. Does my child have to audition to get into the class?

For our Saturday Kids production, you can sign up for the class without having to audition.

2. What happens on the first day of class?

We have auditions for parts on the first day of class. A week or two prior to the first class we will send out audition materials so that they can prepare. It is usually a small part of a musical theatre song of their choice and a small monologue to memorize.

3. What if my child doesn't know any musical theatre songs?

If your child does not know any musical theatre songs, then we will allow them to sing a selection from a Disney song. Please no Pop, Country, Rock n' Roll, or anything on the radio.

4. How long does the class run?

The class will run for 12 or 13 weeks for either 2 at a time.

5. Do we get any comp tickets for the shows?

Each family gets 1 comp ticket per show. If someone else is using your ticket they would just need to give your name at the door.

6. Does my child need anything for the production?

Every child will need a pair of black jazz shoes. They help the students be able to move better during the rehearsals and shows, plus they give the show a unified look. The shoes can be purchased at Centerstage Dance Shop down the street from our location.

During the dress rehearsals and shows, your child will need black basics such as tank top, t-shirt, leggings, or shorts. It will vary show to show as to what is necessary.

7. What comes with the cost of tuition?

Every student will be receiving a souvenir script that they can keep, a t-shirt, and a poster that can be signed at the cast party.

Broadway Junior Productions

1. Does my child have to audition to get into the production?

Yes. We usually have auditions a week or two before the class starts. Once your child has been cast you can register for the production.

2. What do they need to prepare for the audition?

A few weeks before the audition we will set up a sign-up genius for audition time slots. Your child needs a spot in order to audition. We will also send you an audition packet with the list of roles in the show and monologues/scenes to memorize if you would like to be considered for a certain role. Your child also must sing a musical theatre song. Please no Pop, Country, Rock n' Roll, or anything on the radio. If your child does not know a musical theatre song, they could sing a Disney song.

3. Do we get any comp tickets for the shows?

Each student gets 1 comp ticket per show. If someone else is using your ticket they would just need to give your name at the door.

4. Does my child need anything for the production?
