

Hall of Fame Member's
Accomplishments
Joe White b.-May 22, 1916

Promoter: Tournament Director for all tournaments held in Winston Salem during the period 1948-1962

Encouraged Randall Jones to assume leadership responsibilities for promoting horseshoes in the 1950's & 1960's

Assisted Randall Jones in directing tournaments held at Miller Park during the period 1963-1968

Influenced Jack Springer, Recreation & Parks Director at Statesville, to become involved in promoting horseshoes in the 1960's

Served the City of Winston Salem by supporting recreational activities during the period 1947-1978

Served as Recreation & Parks Director of Winston Salem during the period 1963-1976

Designed specific instructions / details on how to build pitching boxes and horseshoe courts in 1950. The designs were also used to build the courts in Statesville and throughout the Southeastern states.

Organized the Winston Salem Horseshoe Pitching Association which was active in 1950's & 1960's

Organized and made arrangements for the funding and building of the first 12 courts at Miller Park in the early 1950's

Served as National Chairman of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) Horseshoe Committee which brought the national tournament to Winston Salem on at least three occasions (1958 1961, 1966)

Served as 3rd. Vice President of NCHPA in 1959.

Wrote an article for Amateur Athlete Magazine highlighting the 1961 NAAU Tournament held at Miller Park.

Presented a speech in 1965 at NC State University on " How To Conduct a Horseshoe Tournament".

